

A Treasured Book

A tattered old Bible, used and worn,
Sits near a chair, a table adorns.
Not a decorator's choice of décor,
It's plain to see; but that tattered old Bible
Means much to me.

The treasure's within and sets the pace for
The day, when studied and read each morn;
The tattered old Bible, well used and worn.

It is a part of my daily devotion,
Along with praise and prayer.

At this special time,
I feel God's presence there.

He gives direction for the new day dawning
And I feel nearer to Christ with an intense longing.

His spirit's within us
And our burdens are lighter each morn,
When we read God's Holy Book
So tattered and worn.

Celebrating The Life Of Henrietta Daale

*November 8, 1930
May 5, 2023*

Henrietta Herweyer was born Nov. 8, 1930 near Sioux Center, Iowa. She was the daughter of Jim and Henrietta Herweyer. She graduated from the Hawarden, Iowa high school in 1947. She married Peter Daale, Jr., her high school sweetheart, on Aug. 12, 1949. They made their home northeast of Hawarden where they lived for 74 years. She was a member of the Hawarden Christian Reformed Church where she was involved in many activities. She was very active in the farming and trucking business where she took care of all of the bookwork. She worked as a preschool teacher assistant at the Hawarden preschool where she blessed numerous children with her loving kindness. Henrietta and Peter enjoyed many years of camping at Oak Grove State Park where they made many memories while sitting around the campfire with their camping friends. She enjoyed bird watching and playing Rummikub with her family and friends on her back patio. Henrietta also greatly enjoyed volunteering at Hillcrest Care Center and blessing the residents with her piano playing and visiting. One of her favorite things to do was to stay very involved in the activities of her 10 grandchildren and her 28 great-grandchildren whom she adored. Whenever any were visiting, she made sure her kitchen was open to unlimited pancakes and ice cream cones. Her love knew no boundaries. She truly embraced God's command to love others as He loves us and made sure everyone knew that the Lord will provide. Henrietta went on to be with Jesus on Friday, May 5, 2023 at her home with family by her side.

Henrietta is survived by her three sons, Jerry and wife Sherri Daale of rural Hawarden, Pete Daale also of rural Hawarden and Dave and wife Roni Daale of Fairview, South Dakota; two brothers-in-law, Wilbur Daale and wife Lucy of Hawarden and Ron Daale and wife Marlene of Hawarden; 10 grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren, and one on the way!; and a special friend, Nancy Kingma of Hawarden.

Henrietta was preceded in death by her husband, Peter; her parents, Jim and Henrietta Herweyer; her daughter-in-law, Randee Daale; her sister-in-law, Joyce Daale; her brothers, Bill and Julia Herweyer, Hank and Rose Herweyer, and Fritz and Joey Herweyer; and three sisters, Jen and Case Bleeker, Mike and Hank Hubers, and Anne and Don Brommer.
