We are grateful to be able to meet together this Sabbath. Thank you for being here with us today! We pray that you will be drawn by Jesus' love to come again. As we reverently gather before the throne of grace, we seek the Holy Spirit's power to make us like Jesus and to be a blessing to others.

After the church service, please remain reverently in your seats until you are dismissed from the sanctuary, and then exit quietly to the outside.

This week's offering is for the Local Combined Budget. Instead of collecting the offering during the church service, as we usually do, you may leave it in the box located near the door or give online via our church website, www.fairplainadventist.org.

Recounting His Blessings

"It is his [Satan's] object to incite the nations to war against one another; for he can thus divert the minds of the people from the work of preparation to stand in the day of God. Satan works through the elements also to garner his harvest of unprepared souls. . . . It is God that shields His creatures, and hedges them in from the power of the destroyer. . . . Satan is exercising his power. He sweeps away the ripening harvest, and famine and distress follow. He imparts to the air a deadly taint, and thousands perish by the pestilence. . . . The power and malice of Satan and his host might justly alarm us, were it not that we may find shelter and deliverance in the superior power of our Redeemer. . . . Those who follow Christ are ever safe under His watchcare. Angels that excel in strength are sent from heaven to protect them. The wicked one cannot break through the guard which God has stationed about His people" The Faith I Live By, p. 328.
