

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family of Keith Tyrell Graham, would like to thank you for the warm embraces, prayers, encouraging words, and many acts of kindness during our time of bereavement.

We would also like to give a special thanks to Keith's hospice nurse, Debbie Edmundson

An honest man here lies at rest,
The friend of man, the friend of truth;
The friend of age, and guide of youth:
Few hearts like his, with virtue warm'd,
Few heads with knowledge so inform'd:
If there's another world, he lives in bliss;
If there is none, he made the best of this.

REFLECTIONS

On March 24, 1982, Keith Tyrell Graham, born to late Dianne Graham and George Berry Williams, passed away on September 2, 2024, at his home. He is remembered as a beloved husband, father, brother, and cherished by many whose lives he touched.

Keith was united in Holy Matrimony to Alexia Amerson Graham in Dillon, South Carolina. Together, they created a loving family that includes their two children, Qiara Amerson and Zantwonette Williams, who live at home, as well as two daughters, Keily Graham, Yanyiah Ward and a son, Cho'zn Graham, who reside in Benson, North Carolina. Keith's legacy continues through his grandchildren: Kamia Amerson, Khalil Whitaker, Atiba Whitaker Jr. of Fayetteville, North Carolina and Kartier McLean of Benson, North Carolina.

Keith is also survived by his sister, Christine Faison (Jimmy) of Newton Grove, North Carolina and three brothers, William Graham of Goldsboro, North Carolina, Jeffery Graham of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and George Graham of Greenville, North Carolina. Additionally, he leaves behind an aunt, Debra Faison (Odell) of Clinton, North Carolina, three uncles—Edward Lee Graham of Clinton, North Carolina, Johnny Graham (Carolyn) of Dudley, North Carolina, and Sam Williams of Dunn, North Carolina. Furthermore, he also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends.

As we gather to celebrate Keith's life, we express our gratitude for the years we shared with him and the love he brought into our lives. He will be deeply missed by all.
