

Your mom is your mom...

Nobody can replace her. Nobody can do half the things she does, or has done, for you. Nobody can compare to her. Only God can love you more than she does. She's only one person. But she's the person that matters the most. No matter where she is... In heaven...

or here on earth!

There's nothing like a mother's love.

Loving In Memory

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

Obituary

Cora Mae Atkinson, 88, of Fayetteville, passed away on Sunday, May 15, 2022. She was preceded in death by her husband of 65 years Albert Atkinson, Jr; daughter, Wanda Rasch; sisters, Sue Newbold, Edna Steinbeck, Gladys Tew and Mazie Lee. She is survived by her daughters, Robin French and husband Bobby, and Julie Strickland and husband Lindsay. She had six grandchildren: Tara Tatum and husband Jason, Beverly Lovell and husband Josh, Lorie Martinez and husband Alex, Holly Warner and husband Cliff, MacLean Strickland and Haylie Strickland. She also had seven great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Atkinson was a faithful wife, loving mother, grandmother, and friend. She was a devoted and active church member at Second Baptist of Fayetteville, Massey Hill Baptist, and Village Baptist Churches through the years. Among other roles she loved singing in the choir. She was also well known as an excellent cook and seamstress.

She worked over the years at Christy's Manufacturing, Big Star Grocery Store and Cumberland County Schools.

The family will receive friends on Tuesday, May 24th at Village Baptist Church from 1:00 pm to 2:00 pm. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 pm with Nick Smith and John Cook, officiating. Burial will follow at Lafayette Memorial Park on Ramsey Street.

In lieu of flowers please make donations to the Village Baptist Church Building Fund or Mission Fund.
