

Norma Hall Coombs

May 12, 1933 – May 27, 2024

“Verily I say, men should be anxiously engaged in a good cause, and do many things of their own free will, and bring to pass much righteousness.” D&C 58:26

Norma was anxiously engaged in many good causes, and she brought to pass so much righteousness through service. She spent hours and hours fulfilling Church callings. She made countless meals for people in need. She spent hours on the phone listening to her sisters as they all navigated motherhood without a mother. She hosted parties to bring together friends and neighbors. She served her children by not only feeding and clothing them, but also encouraging them to develop their own gifts and talents.

Norma was determined and witty. She was energetic and opinionated. She knew what she liked—and she made it happen. What’s more, she worked tirelessly to make it happen. And it did happen!
