

Randell Charles Jost was born June 7, 1959, in Fargo, North Dakota, to Ralph and Elsie (Tapper) Jost. He attended school in Dwight, ND, and Breckenridge, MN. Riding the school bus was something he was eager to do. Randy lived at the family farm until 1987, then he moved to Wahpeton, ND.

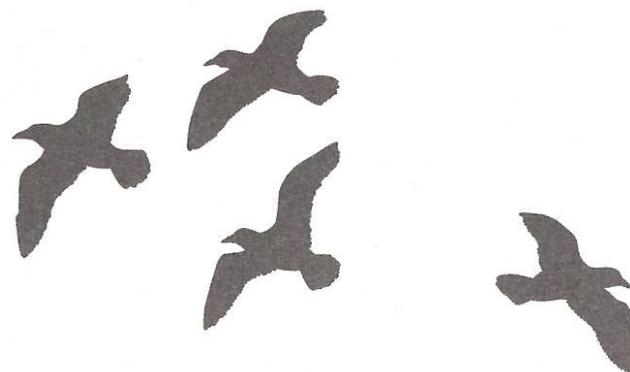

Randy was a very happy guy, and loved going to church. He definitely knew how to pray! He enjoyed bowling and going to Duluth, MN, for vacations. Randy's biggest passions were for calendars, magazines, and of course- McDonalds.

Christmas was always a very special time for Randy. He loved the time spent with his family. He took part in Special Olympics for many years, and was employed by RRHS as a parts sorter at the Center.

Randy is survived by his brother, Ron (Mary) Jost; sister, Renee (Darrel) Essig; nieces and nephews, Amanda Jost, Carissa Jost, Dylan (Kendra) Jost, Dacie (Joel) Niewoehner, Raeanna Essig; and great-nephew and niece, Rylan Niewoehner and Letty Jost.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ralph and Elsie; and grandmother, Irene Tapper.

Randy's family would like to extend a special thank you to Red River Human Services and the staff at 821 for the excellent care he has received and friendships that were made over the years.

Going Home

“I’m Home”

Each day, feels like a birthday in this Heavenly place called “home,” and I could not be more at peace, with the love that I’ve been shown.

I feel as if I’m soaring through each moment that I’m here, and no matter how I try, I can’t remember any fear!

Surrounded by my loved-ones, I don’t feel out of place, and there’s nothing left that I can’t do with my Heavenly Father’s grace.

I feel that spark and zest for life that He gave me once before,
and although you cannot see me, I am with you evermore.

A simple picnic would have done, but you should see this feast!
He saved a seat, right by His side, and said it’s mine for keeps.

If I had known what being here with God was truly worth,
I’d have told you not to worry about my final days on earth.

So promise me you’ll seek His face when your heart is missing me,
and you’ll see me celebrating here, for all eternity!
