

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be,
So He wrapped his arms around you,
And whispered, "COME TO ME."
You didn't deserve what you went through,
So He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful;
He only takes the best.
And when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain,
I could not wish you back
To suffer again.

I Am Always with You

When I am gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You must not tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love, and you can only guess how much you've given me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now, it is time I traveled on alone. So, grieve for me a while, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while that we must part, so treasure the memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on. So, if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near. And if you listen with your heart, you will hear all my love around you, soft and clear. And then, when you come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and a "Welcome Home."

Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night.
Grieve if you will, but not for long,
Upon my soul's sweet flight.
I am at peace; my soul's at rest.
There is no need for tears,
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years.
There is no pain; I suffer not.
The fear is now all gone.
Put now these things out of your thoughts;
In your memory I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath;
Remember not the strife.
Please do not dwell upon my death,
But celebrate my life.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of the late Tracey "Pooh" Vanessa Clark gratefully acknowledges your many unselfish acts of kindness and sincere expressions of sympathy and condolences during this time of bereavement. A friendly smile, a casual touch, these are things that mean so much, to know that you are with us in our sorrow, sharing our prayers today and tomorrow. God gives us comfort in the forms of good friends and family members. Your love and generosity will always be remembered. May the grace of God be with you always.

HER LIFE'S JOURNEY

Ms. Tracey Vanessa 'Pooh' Clark was born on August 16, 1973, in Dawson, Terrell County, Georgia, to the late Willie Maude Murphy Clark and the late Sammy Lee Clark.

She accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age and joined the Mountain Grove Baptist Church.

Tracey received her education in the Terrell County Public school system in Dawson, Georgia, with the class of 1991. She continued her education at South Georgia Technical College in Americus, Georgia, Class of 2003, majoring in Early Childhood. Tracey was employed as a computer technician at Lamar Reese Magnet School of the Arts, Albany, Georgia until she became ill. She was an angel advocate through the Tigerlily Foundation and an active member chair to Sister's Network of the Southwest Georgia Chapter.

Tracey made her transition to meet her Savior on December 11, 2023, at The Willson Hospice House in Albany, Georgia. In addition to her parents, Willie Maude and Sammy Lee, she was preceded in death by a sister, Alice Clark.

Precious memories will always be cherished by her loving family, which includes: her two daughters, Khadijah Jakayla Johnson and Na'Degonia Alexis Ellesse Johnson of Albany, GA; two grandchildren, Kiyon Blake Wright and Blakely Kalice Wright of Albany, GA.; three sisters, Karen Clark of Leesburg, GA, and Gloria Ann Taylor and Victoria Florida (Ellis), both of Dawson, GA; one brother, Johnny Clark of Dawson, GA; one goddaughter, Aubrey Henderson of Albany, GA; and a host of other aunts, uncles, nieces and friends.
