

LOIS JUANITA CRANDAL

Lois Juanita Crandal, 82 of Smiths Grove died September 14, 2007 at Delta Medical Center in Memphis, TN.

The Kahoka, MO., native was a homemaker and a member of the Oakland Baptist Church. She was a daughter of the late Gurden Allen and Ada Everman Allen and the wife of the late Clarence Crandal. She was preceded in death by three brothers, Forrest, Wayne and Richard Allen.

Funeral was Sunday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green chapel. Graveside service and burial is at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Kahoka Cemetery in Kahoka. Graveside services are under the direction of Wilson Funeral Homes of Kahoka.

Expressions of sympathy may take the form of contributions to Oakland Baptist Church Building Fund, 410 Church St., Oakland, KY 42159

Survivors include three daughters, Gracie Hunt and her husband, Tommy, of Oakland, Nancy Johnson and her husband, Larry, of Memphis, and Vicki Jones and her husband, Paul, of Bloomfield, MICH., a stepdaughter, Mary Rose Young of Little Falls, MINN., a son, Butch Crandal and his wife, Pam, of Louisville three sisters, Judy Gutting of Burnside, ILL., Patty Martin and her husband, Paul of Blue Springs, MO., and Margaret Allen of Oklahoma; three brothers, Norman Allen and his companion, Vie, of Keokuk, IOWA, Charlie Allen and his wife, Gloria, and Bob Allen and his wife, Virginia, all of Kahoka; a brother in law, Bob Crandal and his wife, Vera, of Alexandria, MO.; 14 grandchildren 13 great grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Send Condolences