The Pastor's Blog

Faith – Part 1

I am going to use my next few blog posts to explain a fundamental, yet frequently misunderstood concept called faith. My prayer is that we all increase in knowledge and in faith and that these writings assist you along that journey.

First, let us address what faith is not. Faith is not being hopeful that God will do something good for you. It isn't even stating that you believe that God will do what you asked Him to do (surprising). Faith is "the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things unseen." This is a hard saying and it means something quite revolutionary as a concept, a way of thinking and as a state of being.

The Merriam Webster dictionary defines substance as the essential nature of a thing. Therefore, having the substance of a thing is having that thing in essence. What confuses the definition more is that the Bible states that faith is the substance of things 'hoped for'. We know that we cannot hope for something that we already have. We can only hope for what we do not currently possess; meaning that faith is having something (in essence) that you do not currently possess.

This means that faith is having it before you see it. Like Abraham believing God and it (that belief) being accounted to him for righteousness. Abraham believed he was the father of many nations only because God said that he was, despite the fact that he did not have any children. This means that Abraham believed he was the father of many nations, not that he was going to be the father of many nations. Abraham believed he had the promise before it was fulfilled to the human eye.

Therefore, in order to have faith, God is asking you to believe His promises as if you have them already. He wants you to live in your victory before you see the break through simply because you trust Him! So I challenge you to claim His promise and live like you already have it. Once you see the break through it is too late to have faith about it. This will improve your health by lessening your stress and your tendency to worry!

God bless you as He teaches you to have faith!

~ Pr. Daniel Innocent ~

We Believe...

We believe that man's only salvation is by faith in Christ's life and sacrifice as the divine means of grace to us. (Acts 4:12; Ephesians 2:8; Romans 8:3, 4)

We turn to the entire Bible as a revelation of Jesus Christ. (Luke 24:27; 2Timothy 3:16)

We remember that it was through Jesus Christ that God created all things and that by Him they are upheld. (John 1:3; Colossians 1:16, 17; Hebrews 1:3)

We trust the Holy Spirit as Christ's personal representative to guide the human mind in Christian duty. (John 14:16, 17; John 16:13; Romans 8:9)

We look to the heavenly sanctuary as the site of Jesus' ministry for us as our high priest. (Hebrews 8:1, 2; Hebrews 4:15, 16; 1Timothy 2:5)

We have hope in the soon personal return of Jesus Christ. (Titus 2:13; 1Thessalonians 4:16, 17; Matthew 24)

We find in the Ten Commandments Christ's code of conduct and expect that the believer will evidence the indwelling Christ by the demonstration of spiritual fruit. (John 14:15; Matthew 5:17-19; Hebrews 8:10; Galatians 5:22, 23; Philippians 4:13)

We believe that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit and that we should glorify Christ in every habit and practice. (1 Corinthians 10:31)

We understand that there is no intrinsic life in man, and that any life, present or eternal, is by virtue of Jesus Christ, the source of life. (Psalms 104:29; John 15:6; John 11:25)

We enjoy the seventh-day Sabbath as a reminder of Christ's creative power and as evidence of His redemptive power, which is found in the spiritual rest from the burden of sin. (Genesis 2:1-3; Mark 2:27, 28; Ezekiel 20:12; Hebrews 4:4-9)

We believe that the testimony of Jesus, the Spirit of Prophecy, will be manifest in God's remnant church. (Revelation 12:17; Revelation 19:10)

We are confident that the final judgement will be in favor of those who trust in Christ. (1Timothy 5:24; Acts 17:31; Daniel 7:21, 22)

We feel constrained to share the witness of Christ's blessings to all men everywhere. (Romans 1:14-17; Matthew 28:19, 20)

And finally, we anticipate that Christ will share eternal life with all those who accept His plan, and that these redeemed persons will inherit a restored planet from which all sin and selfishness will have been removed. Then, in a society of perfect trust and confidence, they will enjoy, to the full, the wonders of God's universe. (Matthew 5:5; John 14:1-13; Revelation 21:1-8)
