

"God Saw"

God saw me getting tired when a cure was not to be, So He whispered "William" come to Me. With tearful eyes family watched me and saw me pass away day by day.

Although family loved me dearly, God wouldn't let me stay.

A golden heart stopped beating and hard working hands are now at rest, God's Heaven must be beautiful because He only takes the best.

Acknowledgement

The family would like to express their sincere appreciation for the many acts of kindness and sympathy shown during this time. Every act of support has served as a reminder that "family unity makes the difference"
and will be there as a source of strength and comfort.
We thank you and may Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour richly bless you always. Keep us in your prayers.

Reflections of a Beautiful Life

William Lee Charles was born January 6, 1943 to his mother Evangelist Ernestine Murray and Father Murel Murray in Kansas City, Missouri. He confessed Christ at an early age and was a member of Barker Temple, Church of God in Christ and Bishop E. Harris Moore was his pastor. He was a high school graduate of the Kansas City Missouri school district. He worked many many years as a dish washer and in his retirement he did many things, he enjoyed recording movies and making DVD's. He loved working with his hands--taking things apart and putting things together. He loved listening to his favorite artists; Al Green, Bobby Blue Bland and Sam Cooke. His favorite foods were pizza, cheeseburgers, hot dogs, soda pop, cake and ice cream. While Willam Charles loved life, loved animals and loved spending quality time with friends and family.
