

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN
FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

"I'M FREE"

ANNE LINDGREN DAVISON

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,

I turned my back and left it all

I could not stay another day,

To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Ah yes, these things I too will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow

My life's been full, I've savored much,

Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch

If my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief

Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free.

The Obituary

Brigette Renee Sanders, 58 was born April 17th 1965, to the late Jimmy "Jimbo" Nelson Sanders and Rena "Renabell" Sanders in Brooklyn NY.

Growing up Brigette would travel from Brooklyn, NY to Clayton, NC to spend her summer vacations with her cousins. She would later move from Brooklyn, NY to Clayton and then to Raleigh NC to be closer to her family and older sisters.

Brigette was a friend to all and was known for her big heart and even bigger smile that would brighten up anyone's day. She loved everyone around her. She went out of her way to let the people she loved know just how she felt about them with warm birthday wishes, check ups and phone calls. Brigette loved to cook, dance, sing and spend time with her grandkids.

In addition to her father and mother she was preceded in death by her older sisters Phyllis Hinton and Theresa Hinton-Ward.

She is survived by her two daughters; Anika Sanders and Nikki (Larry) McBride. Three grandchildren; Khalil Sanders, Ah'mara Sanders and Zy'Riah McBride. One older sister; Marva Joe Hinton and a host of other aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and friends.
