

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."

With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.

Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Obituary

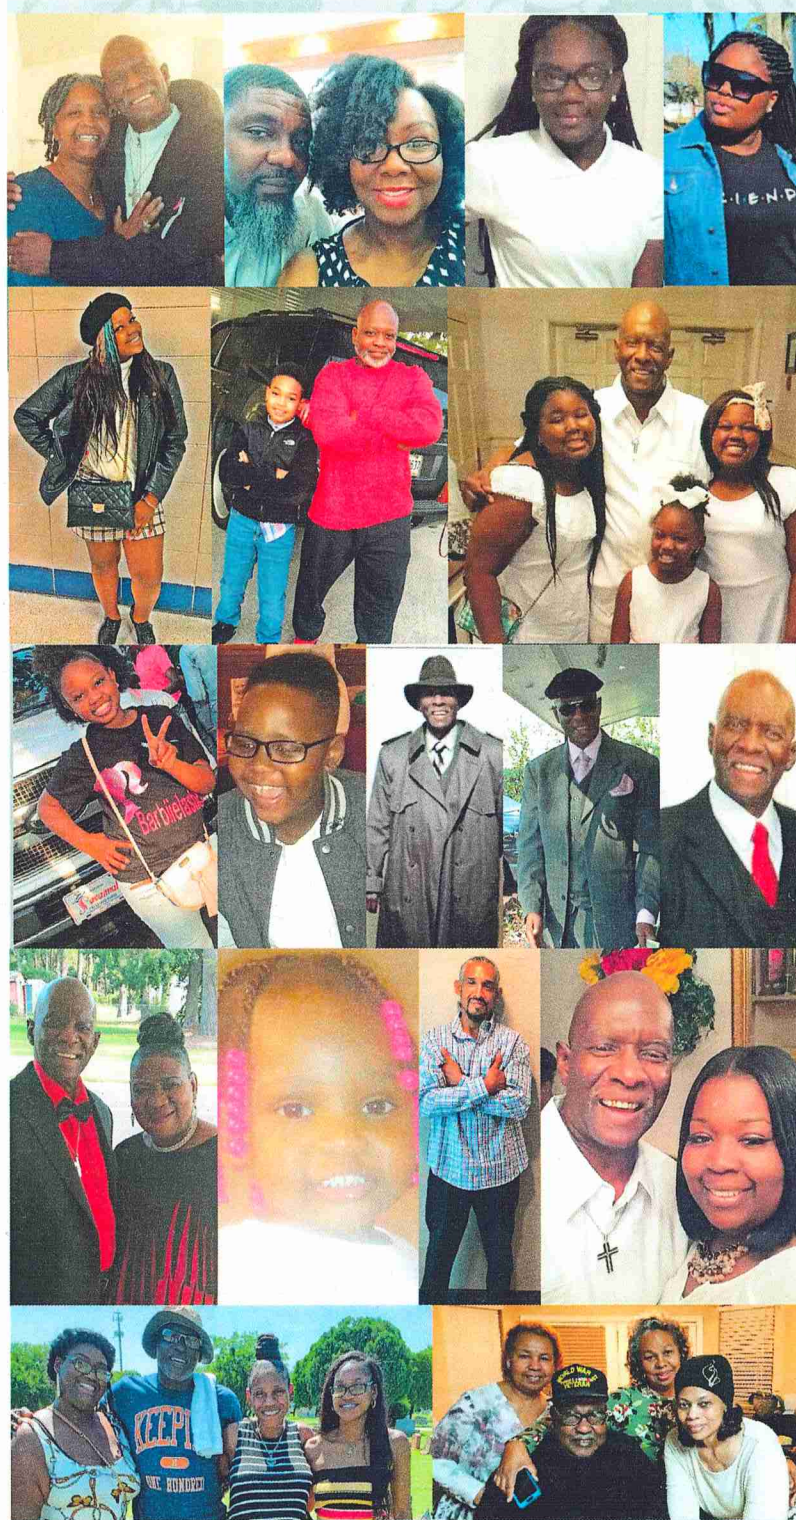

On April 9, 1944, Carlton L. Jordan was born to the late Odell and Emma Barker in Bogalusa, Louisiana. On March 3, 2020, God called Carlton's name to enter into his heavenly home.

As a young man, Carlton attended Center Memorial High School in Bogalusa, LA. He later received an Associate's degree of Religious Arts in Biblical Studies from Miracle of Deliverance Bible Institute, a satellite division of the Jacksonville Theological Seminary in Jacksonville, Florida. Carlton was employed for 28 years with Great Dane, where he retired. He continued to work after retirement. He was a chauffeur for Bryant Transportation and Grace Transportation. He also worked as a valet attendant at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in historic downtown Savannah until he passed.

Carlton was affectionately known as "Hunny" by his wife Virgie and "PaPa" by all others who knew and loved him. Carlton began his Christian journey in 1975 when he gave his life to Christ. In 1979, he joined Pentecostal Miracles Deliverance Church, Inc. in Savannah, Georgia where he served faithfully for 41 years. He was a choir member who sung baritone on the song, "We Are on the Move for Christ". Carlton also served on the Deacon Board, Brotherhood Board, Ministers Board, Board of Directors, Sunday School Superintendent for many years, and worked faithful on the I.W. Cheever Scholarship Committee. Elder Jordan was an exceptional armor bearer for Apostle Cheever. He drove her to many engagements and took the time to sit with her on days and nights when there was not any church services. He would come over to just change the light bulbs and take the trash out. He spent his life studying, living and teaching the Word of God. Elder Jordan spent his days fathering, nurturing and counseling multitudes of God's people. To him everything was already "Alight!"

On November 15, 2008, Carlton married his "Hunny" Virgie M. Hendrix. Elder Jordan loved his wife and you could see it in his mannerism. He was a family man. They would dress alike at several functions. They would visit the home of Apostle Cheever just because they felt the need to stop by. Carlton made Virgie shine and Virgie shined around him. Their home was the Super Bowl headquarters for many of us who loved the game. The Jordan's were an adorable couple.

He is survived and will be forever remembered and cherished by his wife, Virgie M. Jordan of Savannah, GA, six children; two daughters Tammie Thomas (Will) of Jesup, GA, Eloise JaWanna Kelly of Savannah, GA, and four sons Shedgwick Shaw (Karen) of Augusta, GA, Anthony McGee (Marilyn) of Savannah, GA, Carlos Jordan of Savannah, GA and Joey Spencer of Fayetteville, NC. He is also survived by three sisters Brendell Porter (Leroy) of Long Beach, MS, Betty Powell (Andree) of Hattiesburg, MS, Su'San Barker of Covington, LA, one brother, Odell Barker, Jr. of Bogalusa, LA and one sister-in-law Beatrice Magwood of Apopka, FL, nine grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, four special goddaughters and a host of friends.
