

Cleo Edwards Carter
1943-2024

“There is a place where a woman has no substitute, not after a month, or a year, or a generation. That is the place where they call her “Mom.” When she leaves home, she is missed and until she returns there will be an empty, unfilled space in the hearts of her family.”

It is undeniable, that Cleo’s greatest contribution was made in her home with her family. She will be missed.
