A MAN WHO LOVES THE SOIL

I think a man who loves the soil,
Who bends above the fertile earth,
And plants the seed with calloused hands
Must be a gentle man of worth.

A man who cherishes the sod

Must surely be a friend of God!
I think a man who loves the soil;
Who nurtures every growing thing,
And watches with expectancy
For nature's fruitful harvesting,
Who oft has plowed the lands he's trod,
Must be a partner of God.

I think a man who loves the soil
Finds happiness in rich supply;
Though toil he must to earn his bread
He reaps much more than wheat and rye,
For with each little grain or pod
He cultivates a faith in God.
