In Loving Memory of Howard R. "Hap" McCleary

At Twilight of Life

When evening shadow's are falling and the west is turning to gold, We are only here for a short visit, soon this earthly tent will fold.

There is a friend that will never forsake you, even when shadow's fall,
He will always go along beside you, and will answer when you call.

When life with all its cares is ended, and on earth no more I shall roam, I'll join the friend gone on before me,
To ring God's praise around the throne.
