PORT ANGELES SUNSET TIMES

Tonight ~ 6:47pm Next Friday ~ 6:35pm

Members & Visitors!

Measures to curb transmission has led to closures of non-essential venues and recommendations of social distancing.

In an abundance of caution to stop the spread, particularly to high-risk populations and persons with pre-existing vulnerabilities, the Washington Conference of Seventh-day Adventists has directed the closure of our churches until further notice.

In the interim, we have worked on live streaming and publishing a pre-recorded service for our congregation to watch on Sabbath.

Go online at portangelessda.org and click on the right top of the page and then click on “Live Stream”.

Also, last week's service can be viewed under the Video & Podcast tab.

On Wednesdays at 6:30pm (normal prayer meeting time) we are hosting the meeting at the Church, come and join us.

As we go through a period of suspended church services, it is important for us to continue to remember the faithfulness of the Lord by returning our tithes and offerings. God is always faithful to His word and it is through giving that we express our love to Him and continue to move His work forward. Hebrews 10:23 NLT says:

“Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep His promise.”

Since we will not be meeting together as churches for a while, below are instructions as to how we can give electronically.

Go to portangelessda.org , click on top right of page, click on “Online Giving”, follow prompts, log in.

You may also write a check, fill out your tithe and offerings envelope and save it until the time we may congregate together again, or mail it to:

Another option would be to call one of the elders to pick up your tithe & offerings envelope and they will take it to our treasurer.

PSALM 32 (NKJV)

A Psalm of David. A ^{1a}Contemplation.

¹Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven,
Whose sin is covered.

²Blessed is the man whom the Lord does not impute iniquity,
And in whose spirit there is no deceit.

³When I kept silent, my bones grew old
through my groaning all the day long.

⁴For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me.

My vitality was turned into the drought of summer. Selah

⁵I acknowledge my sin to You
And my iniquity I have not hidden.

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,"
And You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah

⁶For this cause everyone who is godly shall pray to You
In a time when You may be found;

Surely in a flood of great waters
They shall not come near him.

⁷You are my hiding place;
You shall preserve me from trouble;

You shall surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah

⁸I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will guide you with My eye.

⁹Do not be like the horse or like the mule,
Which have no understanding,
Which must be harnessed with bit and bridle,
Else they will not come near you.

¹⁰Many sorrows shall be to the wicked;
But he who trusts in the LORD, mercy shall surround him.

¹¹Be glad in the Lord and rejoice, you righteous;
And shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

Unexpected Recompense

Whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord. Ephesians 6:8.

In this life our work for God often seems to be almost fruitless. Our efforts to do good may be earnest and persevering, yet we may not be permitted to witness their results. To us the effort may seem to be lost. But the Saviour assures us that our work is noted in heaven, and that the recompense cannot fail. ⁴²Testimonies for the Church 6:305.

The poor widow who cast her two mites into the Lord's treasury little knew what she was doing. Her example of self-sacrifice has acted and reacted upon thousands of hearts in every land and in every age. It has brought to the treasury of God gifts from the high and the low, the rich and the poor. It has helped to sustain missions, to establish hospitals, to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, heal the sick, and preach the gospel to the poor. Multitudes have been blessed through her unselfish deed. And the outworking of all these lines of influence she, in the day of God, will be permitted to see. So with Mary's precious gift to the Saviour. How many have been inspired to loving service by the memory of that broken alabaster box! And how she will rejoice as she beholds all this!

⁴³Testimonies for the Church 6:310.

"Verily I say unto you," Christ declared, "Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her." Looking into the future, the Saviour spoke with certainty concerning His gospel. It was to be preached throughout the world. And as far as the gospel extended, Mary's gift would shed its fragrance, and hearts would be blessed through her unstudied act. Kingdoms would rise and fall; the names of monarchs and conquerors would be forgotten; but this woman's deed would be immortalized upon the pages of sacred history. Until time should be no more, that broken alabaster box would tell the story of the abundant love of God for a fallen race. ⁴⁴The Desire of Ages, 563.

Every impulse of the Holy Spirit leading men to goodness and to God is noted in the books of heaven, and in the day of God everyone who has given himself as an instrument for the Holy Spirit's working will be permitted to behold what his life has wrought. ⁴⁵Testimonies for the Church 6:310.
