

PSALM 103 Verses 13-18

¹³ Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

¹⁴ For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.

¹⁵ As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

¹⁶ For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

¹⁷ But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children;

¹⁸ To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

Nathan Paul Klok, son of William and Rachel Klok, was born on November 16, 2021. In spite of having four older brothers, he never lacked attention with his loud voice and vivacious personality. Nathan learned to talk early on and constantly entertained us with his continual narration of everything he saw. He loved being on the farm with Dad and was never happier than when he could ride in the skid loader or come along in Dad's truck. Nathan adored all his older brothers but was most often found with Charles, jumping on the trampoline, or playing in the sandbox. He also loved to hold and play (Nathan-style) with his baby brother Peter. Although he was noisy and energetic at home, around strangers he was timid and shy. He stayed close to Mom and always loved to cuddle. Nathan passed away on Monday, November 20, 2023, from injuries from an accident on the family farm.

Nathan is survived by his parents, William and Rachel of rural Boyden, Iowa; his 5 brothers, Gerrit, Wade, Miles, Charles, and Peter; paternal grandmother, Helen Klok of Picture Butte, Alberta; maternal grandparents, Hank and Laurie Van der Waal of Boyden; great-grandmothers, Alyda Bleeker and Elizabeth Van der Waal; aunts and uncles, Jacky and Brian deKok, Cora and Harry Van Maanen, Henk and Deanna Klok, Elina and Dwayne Van Maanen, Jerry and Marissa Klok (all of Picture Butte, Alberta), Krystle and Keith Schelling, Brian and Tiffany Van der Waal, Jonathan and Kimberly Van der Waal, Mark and Makenzi Van der Waal, Alyssa Van der Waal, his special babysitter, aunt Emily Van der Waal; and 44 cousins.

He was predeceased by his Opa, Gerrit Klok and his aunt, Lauren Van der Waal.
