ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, that anyone could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part... Special Thanks to Sister Glenn and Mrs. Francis

ANGIE MAE DAVIS

Angie Mae Davis was born on January 19, 1943, to Issac E. Johnson and Leatha Mae Davis in Hickory, Mississippi. She was the sixth of twelve children born in the family. She was raised with brothers, Ike, Charlie, James, Willie, John Willie, Willie Lee and her sisters, Annie Mae, Edna, Geneva, Mamie and Ruby. As a child, she was always filled with love and willing to lend a helping hand to her parents and loved ones.

In 1959, Angie Mae Davis married Curtis Davis, and was blessed with Kathy Bradley in Mississippi. They soon moved on to Denver Colorado in 1960, where they were blessed with Gregory Davis and Cheryl Boles. She then met John Quincy Adams Sr., and was blessed with Andrea Proctor and John Adams Jr. Angie was also blessed with an abundance of grandchildren and great grandchildren; from Kathy Bradley she was blessed with a grandchild James Matthew Bradley. From her beloved daughter, Cheryl Boles, she had a granddaughter, Zarinah Hall, followed by great grandsons, Dae'Vaughn Cobbs and Dae'Zhaughn Hall. Her beloved daughter, Andrea Proctor gave birth to Angie's Grandchildren, Aaron Proctor, Areyana Proctor, and Ava Proctor. John Adams Jr. (youngest son) and wife Rebecca parented grandchildren Samantha Hamilton, Myah Gadlin, Corean Adams, Messiah Adams, Aaliyah Adams, and Adan Adams; they subsequently adopted James Matthew Bradley and Deborah Wallace along the way. Angie's great grandchildren are Aydrian Castillo, Trenton Price, Amir Bishop, with three babies expected next year in 2021.

Angie Mae Davis made many accomplishments throughout her life as a nurse and a Certified Cosmetologist. Angie proudly owned Celebrity Unisex Beauty Salon and went on to run House of Venus Beauty Salon. She would travel to Atlanta, Georgia for hair shows and conferences in order to stay on top of the latest styles. Angie was married to James Coleman where they were business partners and shared in many of life's adventures for 35 years. They started J&A Transportation Trucking Company (James and Angie Trucking Company) and were successful for 20 years running their business. She was a woman of God and referred to herself as "passing love" within all the service she did. She was gracious in conversation and spoke to everyone. If she did not know you she would get to know you. Following the death of her oldest daughter, Kathy Bradley, she promised to raise up her grandbaby, James Matthew Bradley aka Matthew. Angie and Matthew both served together as ushers at Genesis Missionary Baptist Church for many years. In addition, Angie was a member of the Churches Ushers Union of Colorado. She worked as a dedicated usher when she was a member of Central Baptist Church and later Genesis Missionary Baptist Church. She also attended True Light Baptist Church in Denver. She always said she was blessed to be able to work her post for Jesus as a doorkeeper.

Angie continued on with her education as the oldest student on record at approximately age 72 where she attended College of America and earned her degree in nursing. Some of her hobbies were volunteering at her residence, Francis Heights, delivering meals, brochures, keeping the communication board updated and provided for anyone she knew that needed anything. She would outwalk anyone over 35 years old on a bad day. Angie had a childlike innocence in the way she treasured people and things and added extra value to both. She would tell her truth and colorful theories with the same vigor the 1st time or the 20th time. Angie was like a Doctor in how they are practicing today's medicine - she was practicing parenthood and "trying to be better each day".

Angie Mae Davis, age 77, went to be with the Lord in Denver, Colorado on Monday, November 9, 2020. The cause was Hypertension and Chronic Kidney disease.
