

Acknowledgement

We the family wish to extend our sincerest appreciation to our family and friends for all acts of kindness shown during our moments of sorrow. The Lord has been good to us and we thank you for being there with us. May God forever bless and keep each of you in prayer.

The Day God Called You Home

*God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, 'Peace be Thine'.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home*

Reflections of Her Life

Joycelon Marie Sapho, 66, was born May 17, 1956 in Kansas City, Kansas. She was the second of six children born to the union of Charles and Sonia Sapho.

Her primary and secondary education was in the Kansas City Missouri School District. She attended E. C. Meservey, Martin Luther King Jr., and graduated from Central High School, class of 1974.

Joycelon worked as a caregiver for many years, because that was her passion. During her career, she worked for several medical facilities. At the time of her death, she was employed by Trust Well Living.

Joycelon was a devoted sister, aunt, cousin, and friend who loved and cared for everyone. She departed this life on Saturday, July 30, 2022 at her home. Her parents, Charles Sapho and Sonia Williams, and stepfather, Richard Williams.

She leaves to cherish her memory , four sisters, Anita Sapho Burns, Denise Sapho, Aleta Sapho, and Lesa Sapho; on brother, Charles Sapho Jr., and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other extended family, and friends.
