ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, That anyone could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We thank you so much whatever the part....The Family Of Shin Cheyenne Simpson Jr.

Simpson JR.

The sun rose on Shin Cheyenne Simpson Jr. on March 7, 1987, in Hobbs New Mexico, to his devoted parents Olivia and Shin Simpson Sr. He peacefully passed away on August 03, 2023, at the age of 36, embraced by the loving arms of our Heavenly Father.

Shin Jr. spent his early years in Hobbs before relocating to Denver, Colorado, in 2002. During his formative years, he discovered his profound passions for music, dancing, and aiding others. These passions brought him immense joy throughout his life. His contagious energy on the dance floor was a sight to behold, and his love for music served as a powerful mode of self- expression, resonating with all those who had the privilege of knowing him.

Known for his selflessness, Shin extended a helping hand to anyone he encountered, often going above and beyond to ensure the well-being of his fellow street brothers and sisters. He possessed a comforting presence and an extraordinary knack for providing support to those in need of a listening ear. With his exceptional sense of humor, he could effortlessly bring laughter to those around him. Most importantly, he embodied a nonjudgmental spirit and a free, kindred soul.

Shin held an unwavering affection for his younger brother, serving as his protector throughout their lives, and he made it known. His love for his children was immeasurable, and his greatest desire was to reconnect with them. He cherished his family and relished moments spent with his cousins. Shin was a pillar of strength, renowned for his unyielding love and boundless compassion.

Shin is survived by his cherished parents, Olivia, and Shin Simpson Sr., who stood by him with endless support and love throughout his entire life. He is also survived by his older brother, Kalvin Simpson, his sister, Scherelle Simpson, his brother, Donnell Simpson, and his little sister Krystal (Modesto) Flores-Molina. Shin's legacy lives on through his beloved children, Ceilanna Jerusalum Simpson, Malachi Israel Simpson, and (stepdaughter) Shanya Stokesberry. His nieces, Paige Simpson, and Janie Simpson. His nephews, Lazarus Simpson, Cruz Flores-Molina, Nathaniel Devereaux, Zion Flores Simpson, and Merrick Vaughns. His love and kindness will continue to inspire all those fortunate enough to have crossed paths with him.

Shin Cheyenne Simpson Jr. was preceded in death by his grandparents. Their spirits will undoubtedly welcome him with open arms into the eternal peace that awaits.

During his time with us, Shin touched the lives of many and his absence will be deeply felt by his extended Simpson family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing him. His vibrant spirit, infectious laughter, compassionate nature, and kind heart will forever reside in our hearts. To know Shin was to love him.

As we gather to commemorate Shin's life, let us hold in our hearts the happiness he infused into our lives, the moments we shared, and the enduring legacy of love that he has left behind. Shin's spirit would've encouraged us to celebrate and rejoice through dance, and embracing an array of music that he held dear.

A gathering to celebrate Shin's life has been scheduled for August 18th at Delmar Park. In lieu of floral tributes, the family kindly requests that contributions be directed towards covering the burial expenses.

And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 'He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

Revelation 21:3-4

And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:7

Poem from Nikki Swarn (Partner)

I fell in love with your smile I should let you know at this time That I fell in love with your smile I really did not mean to but I did I cannot stop even if I wanted Weakness was never felt in my body like this After your touch and your sweet kiss Maybe it's the touch of your lips I felt Made my heart filled with so much love Never knew a smile could affect me so much You give me something I could clutch Keeping it close to my heart Because I see it like art I fell in love with your smile Seeing that you wear it such with style Drives me crazy even in my dreams Maybe I can't do without it, it seems

Letter from Merrick Vaughns (Nephew)

Dear Uncle Shin, Remember when you were my roommate. Remember you would let me stay up and play video games when it was past my bedtime. Remember you were at the pool dancing and embarrassing in front of my friends. Remember when we went to the beach, and I talked you into getting in the water. Remember our long talks about being a good kid for mom and listening to grandma. Remember when you came to my school recital to watch me perform. Remember you cheering me on and dancing to the lyrics of the song. Remember we would have dinner outside on the patio. Remember we would laugh together at silly jokes. Remember me showing you my karate moves. Remember when I said I loved you. We had fun together, remember! Do you remember? l always will. Love Merrick Vaughns
