

IRISH BLESSING

May the road rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
The rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

PHILIP G. SEABERG

January 17, 1944 – December 27, 2022

Philip G. Seaberg, 78, of Garner, passed away Tuesday, December 27, 2022, at Westview Care Center in Britt.

Philip George Seaberg, the son of George and Gladys (McElmurray) Seaberg, was born January 17, 1944, in Algona. He attended country school near Titonka until the 4th grade and graduated from Titonka High School in 1962. Phil attended and graduated from Iowa State University in Ames with a Bachelor of Science degree in Ag Business. On November 28, 1964, he married Jane Zwiefel at the Titonka United Methodist Church. Phil continued his education at the University of Wisconsin-Madison graduating with a Master of Science degree in Agriculture Economics. Phil worked at International Milling in Minneapolis for two years before moving to Lake Mills where he was an accountant. In 1976, the family moved to an acreage west of Klemme where Phil began his lifelong dream of farming. In 1987, he began working as an insurance agent for Farm Bureau in Hancock County which he continued until his retirement. Phil enjoyed his family, farming, gardening, trees, fishing, watching and attending Iowa State University football games, and traveling – especially trips to the north shore of Lake Superior. He had a huge heart for animals, especially his “pet” turkey, Rosie.

He was a member of the Klemme United Methodist Church, sang in the church choir and was a past 4-H leader.

Phil is survived by his wife, Jane of Garner; three children, Doug (TJ) Seaberg of Overland Park, KS, LaRae (Chad) Quick of Altoona, and Mike (Heidi) Seaberg of Byron, MN; nine grandchildren, Philip Quick (fiancée, Abi), Jonah Quick, Lucas Quick, Caleb Quick, Sajon Seaberg, Jasper Seaberg, Mason Seaberg, Nolan Seaberg, and Gabrielle Seaberg; a brother, David Seaberg of Moline, IL; a sister-in-law, Barb (Gary) Ludwig of Forest City; two brothers-in-law, Alan (Duly) Zwiefel of Ankeny and Eugene (Jody) Zwiefel of Rock Island, IL; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; parents-in-law, Merrill and Phyliss Zwiefel; brother, Dwight (Virginia) Seaberg; sister, Judy (Bob) Van Hove; and sister-in-law, Ann Seaberg.

Memorials may be directed to the family.
