Going To Heaven

When I am gone, release me and let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You must not tie yourselves to me with tears, just be happy we had so many years. I gave you my love, and you can only guess, how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I traveled alone. Do grieve for me if you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so keep your memories within your hearts. I won't be far away, for life goes on. So, if you need me, just call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near. If you listen with your heart, you will hear all my love around you... soft and dear. And when you come this way alone, I will greet you with a smile and say "Welcome Home".

Reflections of Life

Mr. Dwaine J. Chapman, age 41, went home to be with the LORD on Tuesday, July 9, 2024. Mr. Chapman was born on Monday, February 21, 1983, in Mansfield, Ohio, to Dwaine J. Owens and Perrise A. Chapman.

As a young child he resided in Cleveland, Ohio, but later moved back to his hometown of Mansfield, Ohio. Dwaine attended Mansfield City public schools and later obtained his GED. He loved to play football and basketball and played both at Mansfield Sr. High School. Dwaine had a great sense of humor and was a generous, kindhearted man who loved to help people.

As an adult, Dwaine loved spending time with his children and working on his many projects. He loved GOD and believed in Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. One of his favorite slogans was "I love so much, I don't know how to hate." Dwaine was a very forgiving man. He was a "jack of all trades" when it came to business and, was talented in writing grants, contracts, business proposals, and legal pleadings. He loved mentoring the youth through basketball clinics; park events, study groups, and more. He loved helping to improve our community in any way possible. One of his last projects was the "ImME Movement". This movement was created to promote people to do right by one another, and to support those who could not support themselves.

Mr. Dwaine Chapman leaves to cherish in his memory four sons, Dangelo McKinney, Dwaine McKinney, Jahz'el McKinney and Christian D. Brown (Dwaine raised him as his own son); three daughters, Cho'zyne McKinney, Gianna McKinney, and Princess McKinney; two granddaughters, Zurie McKinney and Gianni Stoneburner; father, Dwaine Owens; mother, Perrise Chapman; sister, Tomika Robinson; two brothers, Quinton Mack and Deonte Jacocks; special friend, Krystal McKinney; two grandmothers, Mrs. Dorthy Owens and Mrs. Bobbie Horton; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews, friends and all of Mansfield and Cleveland, Ohio.

He was preceded in death by the following: great grandmother, Jennie Nevius; God parents, Anderson and Martha Brown; aunt, Diane Brown; uncle Harlan Brown; grandfather, Mr. Roger Owens; and a host of other relatives who loved and helped raise him.
