God Saw How Ejetting Tired

God saw you getting tired And a cure was not to be So he put His arms around you And whispered "Come to me."

With tearful eyes we watched you As you slowly slipped away And though we loved you dearly We couldn't make you stay.

Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Life's Journey Robin Elaine Smith-Tidwell

Robin Elaine Smith-Tidwell affectionately known as "Lannie" was born on October 2, 1959 in Denver, Colorado to her parents, Robert Smith, Sr. and Rosa Mae Dixon.

Lannie matriculated through Denver Public Schools. She later earned her certificate from Emily Griffith Opportunity School, Culinary Arts.

In 1971, Robin met Calvin Douglas Tidwell, when she asked him to buy her some French fries when they both were at McDonalds. They were both in grade school. He graciously bought them and using his words "the rest was history." They exchanged vows on February 28, 2002, in the courthouse in Denver. Calvin fondly remembers her hot meals and dancing together. They loved attending concerts and walks in the park. They shared many happy and precious moments together.

She continued her cooking skills at Childhood Opportunity Day Care Center. She gained employment at the University of Colorado Hospital where she served as a cook for several years. She left cooking after 15 years, and pursued a career in security as a security officer. She was also the caretaker for Edwina Hill, whom was her grandmother.

In her free time, Robin enjoyed hanging out with family, cooking, playing cards including dominoes; listening to music and having fun with people she loved. She loved to dance and could dress to impress.

Those that knew her best describe her as personal, outgoing and vibrant. She was one who you could trust and was also very confident. Lannie valued long-term relationships, she was lifelong friends with, Teresa. She was a fun-loving person who enjoyed life and those she encircled. She will truly be missed.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Robert "Smitty" Smith, Sr. and Rosa Mae Dixon, Earnest, James, and Richard.

Robin "Lannie" Tidwell passed away unexpectedly on June 15, 2023. She is survived by her husband, Calvin Douglas Tidwell; her siblings, Robert A. Smith, Mimi (Thomas) Woods, Robert Smith, Jr., and Kenneth L. (Angie) Martin; Mother in law, Carlene Tidwell; sister and brother in laws, Deidra Batts, Britt Tidwell, and Todd Tidwellgoddaughter, Viola Rochelle Miller Tidwell; many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
