

Vincent Lyle Cunningham, 59, of Yantis passed away on October 10, 2021, with family by his side.

Vincent was born in Dallas, TX, on April 3, 1962, to parents James and Pansie (Fogleman) Cunningham. He was the baby of the family, with an older brother and two older sisters. Vincent graduated from Quitman High School in 1980, and the next year he married the love of his life Tonja. They shared many happy years together and raised a beautiful daughter. Vincent was a hard worker all his life, finding careers both on the pipeline and in construction. However, his true joy was in his family. He loved fishing trips and spending time with his grandchildren.

Vincent is preceded by his father James Lester Cunningham II.

His survived by his loving wife Tonja Cunningham; his mother Pansie Fogleman-Cunningham Frega; his daughter Sophia Terrell; brother James Cunningham III; sisters Sherrie Payne and Patti Mataxen; 4 grandchildren Gracie, Jeremy, Paisley, and a grandson on the way.

The Fishing Hole in the Sky

When I come to the end of the horizon
And enter the other shore
Remember me with fondness
Cry for me no more.

I have found my final resting place
That special spot to fish
Remember the times that we shared
You too, I will miss.

This is the journey I must take,
and I must go alone
Know that my heart is with you,
as I take this journey home.

That final fishing hole
For fishermen like me
To tell the biggest fishing tales
About the one that got away.

Remember me with fondness
This is not goodbye
It is "Till we meet again"
At the fishing hole in the sky.
