The Broken Chain

We knew little that morning
That God was going to call your name.

In life we love you dearly, in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone;

For part of us went with you, the day
God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Your family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same;
But God calls us one by one,

The chain will link again!

Hiawatha 'Hype' Williams Sr.

Hiawatha Williams Sr. (Hype), 43, passed away on Monday, December 7, 2020. He was born on March 16, 1977 in Savannah Georgia to Ervin and Charlotte M. Williams Sr.

Hype grew up in Savannah, Georgia and was educated in the Savannah-Chatham County Public School System. He was a graduate of Savannah Technical College with his Associates Degree as a Master Cosmetologist. He was self-employed as a Barber at Boyz II Men Barber Shop, a line handler with Coastal Line Handling & Piloting Inc, and as a member of International Longshoremen's Association (Local #11414).

Hiawatha as a dedicated family man. He was an incredible husband to his wife (of 21 years) and an even more amazing father to his three children. He loved to spend time with his family and was generous at times to a fault. Hype never met a stranger. He was a lover of people and had an immense spirit of selflessness, respect, understanding, and humor. He touched all those who came into contact with him.

Hiawatha is survived by his parents: Charlotte McRae Williams and Ervin Williams Sr., his wife: Lula Hudson Williams; his three children: Charvian K. Williams, Marcia A. Williams, and Hiawatha Williams Jr; his grandchildren: Aayden A. Miller and Jayden J. Miller; his brother: Jeremy Williams (Aiola L. Williams), his nieces and nephews: Jeremy Williams Jr, Joshua J. Williams, Jahia J. Williams, and Jemya A. Williams; His Godmother: Seledith Taylor ; his Godsisters: Ambria J. Rivers and Britney R. Williams; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
