"When Someone You Love Becomes A Memory; The Memory Becomes A Treasure."

Tracy Yvonne Gulley was born to her parents, Jessie Louise Moore and O.C. Gulley on December 20, 1965 in Denver, Colorado. She was the first child born to this union and was raised with her siblings, Ronnie, Jaimie and Shantel.

She pursued her educational journey at Congress Junior High School and later continued her studies at Denton High School. Tracy believed in the importance of learning and always encouraged others to do the same.

One of Tracy's proudest accomplishments was becoming a grandmother to 15 wonder grandchildren. Tracy was an extraordinary grandmother who always prioritized her family's well-being. She was always there to support them and she served as a pillar of strength for her children and grandchildren.

Tracy was a beautiful person both inside and out, she radiated love and joy wherever she went. Her warm personality drew people in, making her the life of every gathering. Tracy had an infectious spirit that uplifted others, and she had a special talent for making people smile and found opportunities to make fun of others in a playful way.

In her free time, Tracy enjoyed watching movies and sharing laughter with loved ones. She enjoyed quality time with family and friends.

Tracy's memory will forever live on through her children: Charmone Gulley, Kaywonna Yorks, Josline Yorks, and Jessica Yorks. Additionally, she leaves behind a legacy of love and laughter through her cherished grandchildren: Zharmonet, Zakoreia, Zyler, Jazad, Ja'von, Jace, Jaz, KaiMoury, Taymoury, Jaymoury, Zariah, Medina, Noah, Sumayyah and Kaiman, and siblings, Ronnie Moore, Jaimie Wiggins and Shantel Moore.

Tracy also leaves behind numerous other family members and friends who will miss her dearly. She had a way of touching people's lives with her kindness and compassion that won't be forgotten.

I remember my mom would talk stuff when I was trying to give her a concert. She laughed and cried talking about Charmone my beautiful daughter, that aint it. Her laugh was a blessing itself, love you mom, 4ever in a day.

One of the best grandmothers, she made sure my daughter, Kaimoury had everything she needed.

I remember my momma being a strong woman. She was the strongest woman I know and I remember her often saying "you kidding me", my momma was a real one. She was and angel and will truly be missed

I love my grandma so much and I miss her. When we used to go to her house and no matter if she was struggling, she always had gifts for all of her grandchildren. She played uno with us and we always had a great time, whether just sitting or laughing. She was a always there when we needed her.

Making amazing dishes regardless of what she cooked. Chef Tracy we gonna miss you sis.

Tracy Gulley was my bff. We were classmates and her birthday was a day apart from mines. Every year we would celebrate our day together. We enjoyed partying the whole month of December. When we went to school we always hung out together and she would have me sing to her if I got into it with someone I knew. She had my back no matter what and was such a beautiful person inside and out. I will see you again by bff, fly high baby girl. Love you always.

I remember seeing her at your house when I was pregnant with Kynni and I walked in she was holding Kor Kor and she told me to give her a hug and as soon as I got close Kor started screaming you said you must be havin a girl. She said uh uh get away from my grandbaby upsetting her. Lmaoo I still gave her that hug and sat right next to her. And Kor never stopped screaming. We was laughing at first til she got tired of me messing wit them and she yelled my name so loud I thought my grown ass was finna get a whoopin. I tried to make sure I came over all the time so I can see her and she always had everyone in shits and giggles. One thing bout Auntie Tracy you don't mess with her stuff, food and definitely don't disturb her grandbabies.
