

Odilia Ann (Revering) Steidl was born on November 18, 1932 in Effington township. She was the youngest of 5 children born to Stephen and Anna (Thoennes) Revering. On June 21, 1950, she married Lawrence Steidl at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Urbank, MN. Nine Children were born to this union; Mary Ann, Jerry, Larry (Terry), Stephanie, Paul, Pam, Kurt, Jacqueline, and Stacy.

Odilia lived a busy life raising her 9 children while helping on the farm. She would plant a large garden every year and enjoyed canning with her children. Later in life, Odilia and Larry owned an antique shop, which they enjoyed as their hobby. She was a member of the Daughters of Isabella and was an avid quilter. Odilia loved to bake and always had something ready to serve company. At Christmas, she often designed and baked the most beautiful gingerbread houses. She loved hosting parties and especially loved listening to polka music, with a good kaduper. The card game 'PIT' was an all-time family favorite she enjoyed immensely. She was such a classy lady, as it was important to always look her best.

Odilia was an avid card player, especially whist. She was a hard one to beat in that game. She also loved Bingo and was often the one calling out "BINGO"!! Odilia loved to travel, often going out west to visit her sisters. A few of her highlights were her trips with Larry to New York City and Las Vegas, as well as a cruise to Cabo San Lucas. Odilia always remembered everyone's birthday with a card, including her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was a good and loving mother and will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Odilia died unexpectedly on July 10, 2019; she was preceded in death by her parents, Stephen and Anna Revering; husband, Larry Steidl, and daughter-in-law Nancy (Muyres) Steidl, wife of Jerry and mother of Ryan and Shana.

Interment

St. Nicholas Catholic Cemetery—Belle River Township, Minnesota

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;

A time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal;

A time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;

A time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;

A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to seek, and a time to lose;

A time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to tear, and a time to sew;

A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate;

A time for war, and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
