Thank you for being here with us today! We pray that you will be drawn by Jesus' love to come again. As we reverently gather before the throne of grace, we seek the Holy Spirit's power to make us like Jesus and to be a blessing to others.

Following the church service, all who wish may remain in the sanctuary for quiet prayer and meditation. All others are asked to hold their conversations until they have left the sanctuary. Thank you for helping to maintain a reverent atmosphere.

Next week's offering is for Michigan Advance Partners.

The elder on call next week is Jeff Arthur. His phone number is 252-8931.

Women's Prayer Breakfast will be tomorrow morning at 8:30 a.m. in the fellowship hall. Ladies of all ages, come share the fellowship and rejoice in answered prayer! Our devotional will be shared by Kaylene Chadwick on Scripture memorization and how it impacts our prayer life. Please sign up to share food at PerfectPotluck.com. The organizer name is Strack, and the password is 6951.

Recounting His Blessings

"It should be kept before the young and tender minds that God is constantly giving his blessing to his dependent children in the sunshine and showers, which cause vegetation to flourish, and the earth to yield her bounties for the service of man. These blessings are not bestowed upon us to encourage our selfish natures, by retaining the treasures of God's bounty, and fixing our affections on them, but that we may render back to the Giver gifts and offerings. This is the least expression of gratitude and love that we can return to our benevolent Creator"
Sabbath School Worker, July 1, 1896.
