

Remembering His Life

William Stone Jr., age 60, passed away peacefully in Omaha, Nebraska on February 19, 2024. He was born July 12, 1963 to the late William and Caroline (Munsterman) Stone Sr. in Sacramento, CA.

William loved his grandchildren. There was nothing he couldn't fix and if he couldn't, then it "wasn't fixable." Some of his best tools were duct tape and zip ties. William was a great builder, building homes from the ground up. He was known for always smiling, enjoyed fishing and the ocean.

William is survived by his daughters, Sydney Henselin and Maddline Henselin; grandchildren, Ayden Jackson, Jeremiah Jackson, Wyatt Henselin, and Silas Jackson; and a host of family and friends.

To Those I Love And Those That Love Me

*When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so much to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you cannot guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown.
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for awhile that we must part.
So bless the memories in your heart.
I won't be far away for life goes on;
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see me, I'll be there.
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and Welcome Home."*
