Acknowledgment
Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair; perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there; perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say; perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part. May God forever bless each of you.

In Loving Memory of Beverly Berry

In the heart of the church,
her spirit would shine,
A beacon of love, so gentle, divine.
With arms open wide, she welcomed us all,
In laughter and prayer, she answered the call.

Beverly Berry, a name we hold dear,
A mother, a friend, forever near.
Her laughter, a melody that danced in the air,
A testament to love, a bond beyond compare.

Through the seasons of life,
she cherished her kin,
With each hug and each smile,
her warmth would begin.
Her grandchildren's laughter,
a sweet symphony,
In their joyful embrace, she found harmony.

A lover of life, she embraced every day,
Finding beauty in moments, come what may.
From family gatherings to quiet, shared prayer,
She taught us the value of love and of care.

Though she's gone from our sight, her spirit remains,
In the love that we share, in our joys and our pains.
So let us remember the light that she gave,
In our hearts, Beverly's love will forever wave.

Rest now, dear mother, in peace and in grace,
Your legacy lives on in each warm embrace.
With every sweet memory, we carry you near,
In the love that you planted,
you'll always be here.

A Son's Tribute

From my earliest memories, you were my guiding light. Your laughter was like a warm embrace, and your smile could brighten the darkest of days. I remember the countless times you stayed up late helping me with school projects or comforting me after a tough day. You had this incredible ability to make everything feel okay, to turn tears into laughter with just a few kind words.

I cherish our time together—the little moments that seemed so ordinary but were, in fact, extraordinary. The way you would dance in the kitchen while cooking, how you always knew the right thing to say to make me feel better, and your unwavering belief in me, even when I doubted myself. You taught me compassion, strength, and the importance of family.

I think about all the lessons you imparted, the values you instilled, and the love you shared so freely. You showed me how to be kind, to embrace life with open arms, and to face challenges head-on. Your spirit lives on in everything I do, and I strive every day to make you proud.

Though you may no longer be with us in body, your love and wisdom continue to guide me. I find comfort in the memories we created and the legacy you left behind. You will always be a part of me, and I will carry your love in my heart forever.

Thank you for being my mother, my friend, and my inspiration. I love you more than words can express, and I miss you deeply. Today, we celebrate you—your life, your love, and the countless ways you touched our hearts.

With all my love,

Life's Journey

A GOLDY WOMAN

BEVERLY ANN LEBLANC BERRY was born on April 16, 1950 to her parents Elna and Leonard LeBlanc. Beverly's journey began in the heart of Denver, where she was educated through the city's public schools, culminating in her graduation from Manuel High School in 1968. Her pursuit of knowledge continued, and in 1971, she furthered her education at Trinidad State College, eventually obtaining her certification as a medical secretary.

Beverly dedicated her professional life to serving others, retiring from the V.A. Hospital after years of devoted service. She performed her duties with a spirit of excellence, embodying the compassion and selflessness that defined her character. Known for her infectious laugh and welcoming nature, Beverly had an innate ability to make everyone around her feel valued and at home. Her life was a testament to joy and laughter, as she delighted in the simple pleasures of life spent with her family, sharing moments that would become treasured memories for all.

A woman of deep faith, Beverly accepted Christ at an early age, a foundation that blossomed into a remarkable spiritual journey. As her faith grew, she embraced her role as an Evangelist, touching the lives of many. Her love for gospel music resonated in her heart, weaving a melodious thread through the fabric of her everyday life. Whether attending church services or gathering with loved ones, she remained an unwavering source of light and comfort.

Beverly's culinary prowess was legendary, especially her famous Tamale pie, which brought friends and family together at the table—an emblem of her love. The laughter that filled the room during these meals will forever echo in the hearts of those fortunate enough to share in those moments.

Beverly Ann Berry's life was a beautiful melody, rich in love and generosity. Though she has departed from this earthly realm, her spirit will forever resonate in the hearts of those she leaves behind, a lasting reminder of the beauty of a life lived in grace and love.

Behind her, she leaves the profound absence of her parents, Elna and Leonard LeBlanc; and her brother, Lenard LeBlanc, Jr.; who now join her in eternal peace.

Beverly Ann LeBlanc Berry departed this life to the embrace of the Lord on September 29, 2024 in Denver, Colorado. She leaves behind her steadfast sons, LeBlanc L. Berry and Lonnye D. Berry, who continue to carry forward her legacy of kindness and grace. Her family circle is enriched by three beloved grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, each of whom she cherished dearly, imparting wisdom and love at every opportunity. Additionally, she is survived by her sister, Bobbie Jean LeBlanc; and a host of other relatives and many friends whose lives she touched with her warmth and generosity.
