

Therefore we are always confident
knowing that,
whilst we are at home in the body,
we are absent from the Lord.
(For we walk by faith & not by sight.)

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body:
and to be present with the Lord

Wherefore we labor that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted

of Him
- II Corinthians 5:6-9

During a time like this we realize how much our Friends
really mean to us.
Your expression of Sympathy
will always be remembered.

Honor
Loving Memory

Mrs. Shirley 'Jean' Norman Floyd, 75, of Sanders Road, Dewy Rose, wife of 50 years to the late Darrell Bailey Floyd, entered into rest on Tuesday, November 14, 2023, at home following a battle with cancer.

Jean was born in Elberton on March 18, 1948, daughter of the late Reginald Bond Norman and Ruth Adams Alexander Norman. She was a member of Liberty Congregational church. Jean worked at the Iva Sewing Plant for 20 years and retired as a setter from Torrington/Timkin in Honea Path. In her free time, Jean enjoyed reading and traveling to the mountains. She especially enjoyed visiting casinos and gambling.

Surviving are her son, Darrell Steven "Shack" Floyd and Christel of Elberton; sister and best friend, Faye Harris and her husband Don of Modoc, SC; grandchildren: Shana (Justin) and Chan; niece, Toni; great-nieces: Alexis and Kaylie; and a host of other relatives and friends.

In addition to her husband and parents, she is preceded in death by her brother, Howard Reginald Norman.

Don't think of him as gone away - his JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN, life holds so many facets - this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth
AND COMFORT
where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

In the Hearts of those he touched For nothing loved is ever lost -
And he was loved so much.
- Ellen Brenneman
