Key Concept for Spiritual Growth

The news of the coming of the Son of man is not just about the sensational events that precede His coming; the event itself has an immediate effect on our spiritual lives. Now is the time to refresh our connection with the Lord. The future event of Christ's coming imbues our present religious and spiritual journey with intention and significance. The closer we come to our Lord in our prayers and in our worship services, the more we will long to see Him face-to-face.

Trust God When God Is Silent

Oh, that I knew where I might find Him, that I might come even to His seat! Job 23:3

Behold, I go forward (and to the east), but He is not there; I go backward (and to the west), but I cannot perceive Him; On the left hand (and to the north) where He works (I seek Him), but I cannot behold Him; He turns Himself to the right hand (and to the south) but I cannot see Him. Job 23:8-9
Now listen to Job:
But He knows the way that I take (He has concern for it, appreciates, and pays attention to it). When He has tried me, I shall come forth as refined gold (pure and luminous).

Six Things to Do When God Is Silent

1. When God is silent, just keep doing what He told you to do the last time you believe you heard from Him.
2. God's silence could be a compliment to you. If God isn't telling you exactly what you should do, then be confident that He trusts you to make the right decisions!
3. Don't compare yourself with anyone else!
4. Keep talking to God even if you don't think He is answering.
5. Keep listening, even if you have a long dry spell of not hearing anything.
6. Ask God to examine you. Psalms 26:2. Psalms 139:23,24

Seek His will in all you do, and He will show you which path to take. Proverbs 3:6 NLT
