

In Loving Memory Of

Dho Kho Meh

Funeral Service

Tuesday, January 25, 2022 - 11:00 a.m.

Church of St. Mary
Willmar, Minnesota

Interment

Fairview Cemetery
Willmar, Minnesota

Dho Kho Meh was born on June 1, 1967, in Burma, the son of Saw Pue and Mya Meh. He lived his first 12 years in a refugee camp before coming to the United States. In 1997, Dho was married to Kweekaw and they lived in Texas and New York. Six months ago they moved to Willmar to be closer to family. He enjoyed fishing, gardening, singing and making music videos.

Dho Kho Meh passed away on Wednesday afternoon, January 19, at Carris Health Rice Memorial Hospital in Willmar following an extended illness.

He is survived by his wife, Kweekaw Meh; four children, Kwar Nah (and Nay Htoo), Eh Malter, Eh Lergay and Kwee Dho; all of Willmar; three grandchildren and one sister, Nyo Tae of Benson, besides other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

In Loving Memory Of

Dho Kho Meh

Funeral Service

Tuesday, January 25, 2022 - 11:00 a.m.

Church of St. Mary
Willmar, Minnesota

Interment

Fairview Cemetery
Willmar, Minnesota

Dho Kho Meh was born on June 1, 1967, in Burma, the son of Saw Pue and Mya Meh. He lived his first 12 years in a refugee camp before coming to the United States. In 1997, Dho was married to Kweekaw and they lived in Texas and New York. Six months ago they moved to Willmar to be closer to family. He enjoyed fishing, gardening, singing and making music videos.

Dho Kho Meh passed away on Wednesday afternoon, January 19, at Carris Health Rice Memorial Hospital in Willmar following an extended illness.

He is survived by his wife, Kweekaw Meh; four children, Kwar Nah (and Nay Htoo), Eh Malter, Eh Lergay and Kwee Dho; all of Willmar; three grandchildren and one sister, Nyo Tae of Benson, besides other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents.