Rubbie Lee Sanders entered this world on October 13, 1960 in Smithfield, North Carolina, born to the late Cleophus and Mildred Bell Sanders. Ms. Rubbie was educated in the Johnston County Public School System, where she attended and graduated from Smithfield Selma Senior High School-(June 1978).

While there she played on SSS High School basketball and baseball team. She then furthered her education at Johnston Community College-(1978-1980).

Ms. Rubbie had an extraordinary love for children which landed her a career with the Johnston County Public Schools where she worked for several at Wilsons Mills Elementary school as a teacher assistant and bus driver-(1980-1990).

Beyond her career, Ms. Rubbie enjoyed attending church with her mother, Mrs. Rubbie Bell Sanders, and watching television. Some of her favorite shows were The First 48 and The Andy Griffith Show. Above all she loved being a grandmother to her three sweet and precious grandchildren- Jaslyn, Montaray and Milani.

On April 21, 2024, Ms. Rubbie Lee Sanders was called home to be with the Lord. She is preceded in death by her parents-Cleophus and Mildred Bell Sanders; three siblings- Brenda Kay, Mildred Faye Mitchener and Marie Andrews.

She is survived by her daughters-Jasmine Sanders & Melody Sanders; her grandchildren-Jaslyn, Montaray & Milani; her siblings-Stephanie Rhue and London Bell; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins & lifelong friends.

Though her presence will be deeply missed, her memory remains forever in our hearts.
