

River! that in silence windest/Through the meadows, bright and free,

Till at length thy rest thou findest/In the bosom of the sea!

Four long years of mingled feeling,/Half in rest, and half in strife,

I have seen thy waters stealing/Onward, like the stream of life.

Thou hast taught me, Silent River!/Many a lesson, deep and long;

Thou hast been a generous giver;/I can give thee but a song.

Oft in sadness and in illness,/I have watched thy current glide,

Till the beauty of its stillness/Overflowed me, like a tide.

And in better hours and brighter,/When I saw thy waters gleam,

I have felt my heart beat lighter,/And leap onward with thy stream.

Not for this alone I love thee,/Nor because thy waves of blue

From celestial seas above thee/Take their own celestial hue.

Where yon shadowy woodlands hide thee,/And thy waters disappear,

Friends I love have dwelt beside thee,/And have made thy margin dear.

- "To the River Charles" by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow
