Worthy Student Program

Available 2020—2021 School Year

Work Study:

Work Study is a financial aid program that allows a student in grades 7 or 8 to work on-campus to earn money to help pay tuition expenses. Work Study is not a scholarship (you must work to earn it). Your earnings will depend on where you work and the type of work you perform. Work Study jobs are limited and go to the students with needs and who are responsible. You must apply for Work Study each school year.

SDA Clinic Scholarship:

This scholarship is for new students who need financial assistance. The Academic Standard of 80% grade average is required. The amount awarded will be applied to the student's account each month. Parent Contribution Plan required.

Hope Run Scholarship:

This scholarship is designed for students who need financial assistance. An Academic Standard of a C average is required. Parent Contribution Plan required.

YES (Youth Education Sponsor) Scholarship:

This scholarship is funded by donors who are willing to make a monthly contribution to a specific child's education.

Admission to the Saipan Seventh-day Adventist School is open to all students regardless of ethnic background /origin or religious beliefs.
