Acknowledgement

The Pennington/Hill family would like thank everyone for their prayers, cards, food, and phone calls during our time of bereavement.

May the Lord continue to bless each of you.

For my Mommy Strong, Beautiful, Kind, and Determined! You were always a lady in everything you did and You had a special way of delivering a message. Not straight to it like me but with a gentleness that everyone adored and loved about you. I wish we had more time together, but God saw that your job was complete. I know that life must go on, but this is gonna be hard for me because you were my last rock standing. But I can hear you telling me to stand strong.... I'm gonna miss you so much, momma. We are gonna miss you soooo much. I will always Love and remember our times together thank you for the sacrifices and your dedication and everything in between Carolyn Jean My Momma Always Love you, Rest Peacefully

Shari

~ Carolyn J. Hill ~

Carolyn J. Hill was born November 2, 1951, in Kansas City, Missouri to the union of Milton and Emma C. Pennington.

She was educated in the Kansas City MO School district in her youth, and went on to obtain her Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration Management from Park University in Parkville, MO.

She and her children spent a brief period of time living in Pine Bluff, Arkansas. Carolyn's husbands, Roy L. Taylor and William H. Hill both preceded her in death. Her parents, one granddaughter, Crishanna Allen, and two siblings, Jimmy R. Pennington, and Belinda F. Pennington also preceded her in death.

Carolyn, who was affectionately known as Carol, excepted Christ at a young age. Everyone who knew Carol knew her love for the Lord and her dedication to serving Christ. She served as a Sunday school teacher at Second Missionary Baptist Church where she was a proud member under the leadership of Pastor Donald Ford. Carolyn was a faithful and committed member of the church for many years and spent a great deal of her time at church fellowshiping with other believers, volunteering, and serving the Lord.

Carolyn was very family oriented and enjoyed spending time with her family. When she wasn't teaching Sunday school, reading her Bible, or listening to gospel music, you could find her shopping, attending family events, or spending time with her grandchildren. Carol was known for her fashion sense which she passed down to her daughters.

Carolyn transitioned to glory on Monday, September 19, 2022.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Ilona Allen (Terry), Shari Young, and William B Hill Naomi), Kayla Hill, all of Kansas City, MO; one brother, Ronald E. Jones Sr.; three sisters, Regina Lockheart (Ernie), Benita McConnell, and Pamela Pennington; seven grandchildren, Chris Allen, D'Shawn Jordan, Nastajia Robinson, Jaylen Hill, Renee Wheaton, Brandon Hill, and Peyton Hill; two great-grandchildren, Amoriana Allen, Chris Allen Jr., and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, church family, and friends.

TO YOU MOMMA

Our memories of you are a precious treasure, you were an example of class and grace.

And being a part of your life was a pleasure, just to witness your laugh, the smile on your face.

Thoughts of you fill our hearts with love and admiration, you not being here is hard to comprehend.

Your life, and legacy is our inspiration as we witnessed your faith endure to the end.

So, we'll be sad for a while but not for too long, because we're glad you are no longer in pain.

We can rejoice in knowing that heaven's your home, and that God has called you by name.

It's time for us to release you, we'll set your spirit free. because we know you'll be watching over us and in our hearts, you'll always be.

Love you Momma
