

Celebrating
THE LIFE OF

Zelma May Jean Jordan

February 2, 1939 ~ February 20, 2024

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house
of the LORD for ever.

Zelma May Jean Jordan, of Roland peacefully passed away on February 20, 2024. She was born on February 2, 1939 in Thornburg, AR.

In her lifetime, Zelma dedicated herself to caring for others and retired after years of being a compassionate caregiver. She loved the Lord and attended church faithfully. Her hobbies included crocheting, watching game shows, and her favorite "stories" on TV. She read the Bible every day.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Fred and Minnie (Bunton) Breuning; husband Marvin Jordan and by four children: Ricky Anderson, Cynthia Anderson, Clyde Anderson, and Donna Buzzell.

She is survived by two daughters, Vickie Underwood (Gary) of Roland, AR, and Diane Crum of Mississippi. She is also survived by her 13 grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren and several extended family members who brought immense joy into her life.

Zelma's life will be celebrated at Harmony Baptist Church in Perryville, AR. A visitation will begin at 10:00 AM, followed by a Funeral Service at 11:00 AM on Saturday, February 24, 2024. Interment will follow at Harmony Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be: Cody Davis, Caden Kristofik, Gregg Kristofik, Rylan Simmons, Wiley Simmons and Gary Underwood. Honorary pallbearers include Brody Kranz, Kaleb Ziegler and Calob Gray.

Zelma's kindness and love will forever resonate in the hearts of those she touched. May she rest in eternal peace knowing that she was cherished by many.
