Life Story

Lynn Stith was born September 21, 1963 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She was born to Frances Stith and Dennis Stith. She was the sixth of ten children.

Lynn received her early education at Olney High School. After she graduated, Lynn joined Towers Perrin at the Clothes Pin (15th and Market). She was given increasing responsibility and was promoted to supervisor. She remained at that company for over 20 years.

Lynn was an avid reader like her mother. She was a great friend and lit up the room with her personality. Lynn was a beautiful person inside and out and was very generous. She accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and on Sundays would attend church with her father. For years she worked at a local church in accounting and new member classes. She had an abundance of nieces and nephews that she adored, and she loved the role of auntie and forged valuable relationships with them all.

Lynn battled with cancer for four years, and God healed her once. She faced her second battle with her head held high and remained positive through chemotherapy and immunotherapy treatments and extreme discomfort. She decided to stop treatment and go home to be with her Heavenly Father.

Lynn was preceded in death by her mother and father, Frances and Dennis Stith. Lynn leaves to cherish her memories; her siblings, Denise Stith, Francine Stith (Cox), Cheryl Stith, Sharon Stith, Dennis Stith, David Davis, John Davis, Julian Davis, and Jacques Davis, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family
