

Elizabeth Anne "Bette" Thomas Hunt, 75 of Bowling Green died Sturday, Sept. 13, 2014
The Warren County native was a daughter of the late Buren and Dana Carter Thomas and wife of the late Robert H. Hunt. She is preceded in death by three sisters, Hattie Frances Hackney, Clara Vernon, Dixie Wilson; four brothers, Buren Thomas, Jr. , Hugh Allen Thomas, James Robert "Bob" Thomas, Charles William "Bill" Thomas. She was a teacher, a member of Smiths Grove Church of Christ, Smiths Grove Homemakers, and member of DAR.

Her survivors include her four daughters, Ruth Hunt, Barbara Hunt Smith (Jimmy), Elizabeth "Beth" Hunt Whitaker, Rebecca "Becky" Hunt Dumond (Rickey), and one son, Charles Hunt; six grandchildren, Amanda Wright(Michael), Brandy Grimes, Jessica Hunt, Lauren Hunt Honeycutt, Wesley Whitaker, Christopher Dumond; one sister, Mary K. Miller and several nieces and nephews. The family wishes to express their appreciation for the loving kindness of special caregivers Sue Sharer and Linda Brooks and other caregivers over the years.

Funeral service will be 11:00 a.m. Monday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel with burial in Smiths Grove Cemetery. Visitation 4:00-8:00 p.m. Sunday and 9:00-11:00 a.m. Monday at the funeral home.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to Foundation Christian Academy, 2480 Three Springs Rd., Bowling Green, KY 42104

Send Condolences