His Life Story

Mr. Jason Warren Jr.

On November 24, 1949, the world was graced with the arrival of Jason Warren Jr., a Texan whose charisma and grace left an impactful mark on all who knew him. He was born to Jason Warren, Sr. and Florence (Sue) Warren, and alongside his brothers CW Robinson and Robert Warren. Jason illuminated so many lives of those around him.

Jason's spiritual journey began early as he accepted Jesus Christ and was baptized, lending his voice to the heavenly melodies of the Galilee Baptist Church choir under Pastor Edwin Davis's guidance. His academic tenure at Worthing High School in Sunnyside, Texas, was marked not only by his talent on the varsity baseball field but also by his display of leadership and commitment.

Transitioning from the baseball diamond to the open road, Jason embarked on a remarkable career as a truck driver, dedicating over three decades to the profession before gracefully retiring. A man of refined taste and style, his ownership of the Chrysler 300 set a trend that captivated the neighborhood, embodying his innate sense of sophistication.

Amidst his professional accomplishments, Jason's artistic flair shone through in his love for music and dance. Rumor has it that he was in a male singing group and known for dancing in all the local clubs up and down Scott Street. He was a luminary of rhythm and melody. However, in later years, his true joy was found in the comfort of his home, relishing moments with his cherished grandchildren and indulging in his passion for television.

A connoisseur of chocolate delights and an unwavering supporter of Houston's finest professional sports teams. You better second guess touching his remote when the Astros, Rockets or Texans were playing, he was not having that. Jason's quiet demeanor concealed an astute observer, a man of immense kindness and genuine love, a guiding light to his children and grandchildren.

Today, as we honor his legacy, let us celebrate the 74 precious years adorned with memories of laughter and wisdom. Though he has bid us farewell, his spirit lingers in the cherished memories we hold dear. He is preceded in death by his parents, Jason Warren Sr. and Florence (Sue) Warren; his brother, Robert Warren; and his son, Patrick Hollins.

Tributes of Love

A Tribute to Our Father

A light from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God gave us a beautiful father,
A father who never grew old,
You were always there with a helping hand,
help us now to accept His plan.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
as time goes by, we miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can take our "Father's Place"
May the choirs of the angels receive you and may you have rest and peace everlasting. Amen
Love, Your Children

To Our Papa

Grandpa, your love and kindness were boundless, and we will always keep them in our hearts. Your wisdom and guidance were a light in our lives. We will cherish the legacy you left behind." You were not just a grandfather but a friend, mentor, and confidant, we are grateful for every moment we shared. The pain still remains from not seeing your face but our joy comes from knowing you are in a much better place. Your legacy of love will continue to be engraved forever into our hearts.
Love, Your Grandchildren

To My Husband

Thank you for the good times, for the hard times, for the laughter and the tears. You will truly be remembered and forever appreciated for the wonderful blessings shared and the handsome sons we birth.

Thank you Jason

Remember Me

Speak of me as you have always done.

Remember the good times,
laughter, and fun.

Share the happy memories we've made. Do not let them wither or fade.

I'll be with you in the summer's sun; and when the winter's chill has come.

I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze. I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.

I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep, but memories we've shared are yours to keep.

Sometimes our final days may be a test, But remember me when I was at my best. Although things may not be the same, don't be afraid to use my name.

Let your sorrow last for just a while. Comfort each other and try to smile. I've lived a life filled with joy and fun. Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become.
