A Beautiful Life Story

Trina Chevonne Newman-Townsend was born September 3, 1960, in Los Angeles, CA. To the parents of Bobby Ray Newman Sr. and Myrtis Wray Thomas. Trina was from a large family. She had 18 siblings and was the 4th child born. Trina had 5 sisters and 11 brothers.

Trina accepted the Most High God at an early age, and through Christ, she developed her own relationship with him.

She attended Wadsworth Elementary School, where she graduated in 1972. Later, Trina attended Louis Pasteur, then Audubon Jr. High Middle School, where she graduated in 1975. Trina attended Manual Arts High School and Thomas Jefferson High School, where she completed her high school education in 1978.

Trina played volleyball and softball and collected many trophies. She was the founder of the Wadsworth Elementary School drill team from 1976-1981. She also became a girl scout troop leader from 1990-1998, where every summer, she did a trip to Magic Mountain. Children and adults looked forward to those trips.

Trina attended Maxine Waters, where she received her CNA license. Later, she attended Los Angeles Trade-Tech College, where she received multiple certificates, such as social work, business, and computer.

Trina started her recovery in 2005 and remained clean for 17 years until the Most High God called her home.

Trina had a heart as pure as gold and became a community activist and one of the most incredible supporters in the community. She was not only a great supporter of her community, but in all her local communities. She loved giving back to her community and had a tremendous love for all. Trina also became an evangelist in 2016. She prophesied to the people about their life and helped people overcome obstacles and return them back to the Most High God.

Trina was a beautiful, phenomenal woman and will be missed in many ways for her nurturing, loving, and infectious smile, her resourceful knowledge, her understanding, and her not taking any mess.

Trina Newman- Townsend met the love of her life Curtis Townsend in 1976. Trina and Curtis rekindled in 2015. They became loving partners and got engaged and married in 2021 in Las Vegas. They became inseparable ever since.

Auntie,
I've waited until the deadline just to write this
It was something I tried to hold off on but as time went by I knew I couldn't resist I've sat in my room for hours just thinking of what to say And the only thing that's coming to my mind is Auntie Trina I'll always love you forever and a day You'll always live in my heart and soul I know you're in a better place where God is in control. You played a good role in serving him proudly.
Rest on now Auntie Trina and I'm screaming that LOUDLY!!!!

It's going to feel different now that you are gone, because I just seen you at a toy give away. It feels like yesterday you were just giving me hugs and kisses asking
"what's your name" I would always answer and say
"Lil Chevonne" I was always shy to say it and you would be like stop being shy you little Chevonne.
It's going to be the first birthday without you.
I miss you and love you so much.

Your God baby London xoxo.

Hey Sis,
I'm going to miss you...I'm going to miss everything about you (your voice, you talking mess, and most of all your beautiful face and vibrant ways).
You always made me feel like I was one of your #1 sisters.
How could I ever forget you. How could anyone ever forget you. You were one of a kind. A beautiful spirit person. No one can ever take the place of you, Trina.
I would get attitudes with you and you didn't give a....!
LOL.
As you would tell me in that soft gentle voice
"I LOVE YOU SIS"

I LOVE YOU TO SIS... til we meet again.

Your SIS TASHA

It still feel so fake that you aren't here with us anymore.
I miss you so much I just keep thinking about all the times I used to ride around running errands with you when I was little. Or we would go to your meetings and then get food after. You always made me feel so loved, you always made everyone feel so loved.
Heaven is so lucky to have you, you bring happiness into everywhere you step. I love you so much until we meet again.

You are with the angels now. It was time to say goodbye.Yet it's still hard to accept the pain of loosing you, no matter how hard we try. You we're so very special to us,You always had so much love to share. And knowing you're no longer going to be here,is very hard to bear.
We know this grief will pass after a while,and time will heal this pain.But we know that life without you for us, will never be the same. So LORD please take this message to OUR TRINA up above. Please tell her how much we'll be missing her, and give her all of our love...

Xavi and the kids

To the Love of my life my everything!

From the first day I laid eyes on you I knew that you were the one alpha female that was so young, so beautiful and very very in control!

In the book of proverbs 18:22 it says he who finds a wife finds a good thing and receive favor from the Lord.

But in you I found unconditional love that we both shared, it was nothing I wouldn't do to make you happy. When a alpha female meets a alpha male, you've found your equal soul mate your balance. I love you now and forever there will be no other after you and I eagerly await the day that we're reunited in the heavenly realm. I love you Mrs.Townsend.

Your Husband,
Mr. Curtis Townsend

To my auntie, the one that put this Newman name on the map, as I sit and write this my eyes are filled with tears, tears of pain but also tears of happiness of knowing you're in a better place, I'm going to miss them crazy cakes on my birthday and them wild calls for me to come check somebody but one day we will reunite and laugh again.

Love you, from your number 1 hitta, your nephew Baby Bobby

Dear Auntie, I never figured I would lose this early but death can't break the bond we had... This cross is given to you in love, admiration and thanks. A symbol of faith, it shines by hand with skill and care. In the wispe and swirl of colors it is truly one-of-a-kind of person just how GOD made you. I am blessed to call you my auntie, My unique gift from above. May our hearts always meet in love and prayer... And you have your wings.

P.S.
Tell Diddy we love him and we are all Y'all have.
Y'all wings together in Heaven so keep watching over Us.

Aotfey Johnson

Hey Auntie,
Actions speak LOUDER than words and you proved that with your unconditional love as an auntie. I am SOOO grateful I got to experience that love but I'm so hurt that it ended so soon. You are literally someone that I talked to EVERYDAY, you prayed for me when I called and told you I needed it. I will miss those cakes you got me EVERY year and NEVER missed one, I wish I would've known this would be the last year I would've froze that cake lol. But you are one of my favorite ladies (but you knew that already) and I will miss you so much. I cry every morning because you have survived so many obstacles and always came out on top! I LOVE YOU I LOVE YOU I LOVE YOU, until we meet again MY POPULAR NEWMAN LADY!

Your Niece Britt Britt Newman

Dear Auntie
I can't put any words together "Duty" I'm going to miss that. I'm going to miss the let's take a picture I'm going to miss you getting an outfit made for every occasion. I can't think or imagine life without you so I'm not. I want to enjoy life as much as you did. This is definitely not good bye Auntie this is for sure see you later I'll always feel you, see you, hear you & Imagine you.

Love "Duty" (Danielle)

Aunt Trina,
I'm going to miss you so much, when you get to heaven, please give my mom a kiss and a hug. For me that moment would be so priceless to see, for you to spend eternity with your best friend, Callie. When you see her tell her I'm so sorry, that I haven't lived the life that she had wanted for me. And tell her about the times we have shared here on earth, how you have been there for me since the day of my birth. I know she's going to be so happy you named your daughter after her, then I followed suit and named my daughter after her too. Aunty Trina I'm going to miss your laughter and encouraging words, that always made things so much brighter. I know things haven't been the same since you have been gone, but I imagine the Heavenly Father welcoming you as he's sitting on his throne. I feel the emptiness of your kids, but I pray they remember just physically you're gone. I pray they remember, when Jesus is with them, they're never alone. My heart is hurting and it's hurting so bad, thinking about the good old days that we've had in the past. Kicking it in the park and we had us a blast, wishing I could go back and relive the past. I hope you like this poem that I'm writing for you, and I pray that you know how much I Love and Miss You... And as I'm ending this poem I just want you to know, that I hate that you had to leave so soon, but I understand why you had to go... I promise you Aunty Trina I'm going to do so much better, and my promise to you is to cherish your love, and memories for ever and ever....

LOVE ALWAYS AUNTY, YOUR NEPHEW BOONIE!!!

"A Mother Love"

*There's no love like a mother's love, Her heart is filled with care.
Mother is such a simple word, but to me there's meaning seldom heard.
For everything I am today, my mother's love showed me the way in life and how to be a blessing to others.*

Vincent

Words can't express what you've done and mean to our family. No matter the situation or circumstances always did everything you could and beyond. You called me son and embraced me every chance you had. Showed me it was more than just words and backed it with action. Forever in my heart and with me. Til we meet again moms.

Your son Bull

Cousin, My Little Sister, My Friend,

Even though I was six years older, we (Darryl, Toni, D'Wayne and you) were always together playing in the yard at GG's house at 619 East 37th street- playing outside and being bit by those red ants, skating, collecting butterflies and putting them in jars, running in and out in what we called the "scary house", the vacant 2 story house a couple houses away. I remember as if it were yesterday. Despite the age difference, we were always close all the way up until the last time I saw you, Tuesday, December 20th, when you gave me a turkey and ham to take home for Christmas. We were always close, through the good and not so good times. When we became adults, we went to parties, and went on many trips. We traveled to our family reunions, Sacramento, Atlanta, Dallas, Houston, Pittsburg, and Shreveport. We had so much fun, especially when we traveled to Vegas listening to old school CD's like the Temptations, especially the time you played your favorite song over and over, the "IRS" song by Angie Fisher, as loud as you could. When I joined my church, Lively Stone Apostolic, you joined too. We were constantly together. I love you so much. You will always be in my heart and soul. Well done, Trina, you were God's good and faithful servant. Kiss GG, Eunice, your father Bobby, My Sammy and Lily, Savannah, your mother and my favorite Aunt Myrt, our Gordon, Bro. Bobby and all of our relatives and friends who are in Heaven, where they and you are, filled with peace, joy and praise (Rev:7:15-17)

You Will Be Missed!

Cousin Angie

Ever since I was a kid my auntie Trina has called me on February 14th. She always usually managed to be the first one to call me on my birthday. I could always count on auntie Trina to call me and sing happy birthday and tell me she love me 1,000 times before talking my ear off for 45 mins lol that was ma auntie, and that was just how she rolled. Me and my cousins were all raised like siblings so auntie Trina wasn't just a auntie she was like a bonus mother I. No matter what it was I was gone drop everything and show up for ma auntie if she called me and wanted me there. Last time I spoke with my auntie it was 12/10 she called my phone and told me I didn't call for u foo I called for Jasmine now give her the phone lol she wished her a happy birthday and expressed to us how excited she was for our baby to be born. She couldn't stop saying " ima hook the baby up" she gave so much love to me that she even extended it to others around me. I appreciate u for making me feel loved always...

Love Yea Yea

In my Rose Garden of memories
I see you standing there
An angel in disguise
Who taught me how to love and care
I long to hear your voice
for real not in my dreams
I am missing you so much these days
how empty my world seems People say time heals all wounds
that someday the pain will subside
But Granny I can tell you
I think they must have lied
The emptiness I am feeling now is strong and I am weak
These days go by without you
so dreary and so bleak
In my Rose Garden of memories
I know you'll always be for though you're gone
from this mortal world
In my heart you'll always be

FatFat

Hey granny I know you up there doing your thing I just wanted to tell you how I miss you and I'm going to do my thing for you and I know I'm going to be okay but right now it doesn't feel like that but just know you're a great person I love you and you've touched a lot of people and I will watch Alana and Heaven and I got Fatstuff forever your rode-dog

Your Granddaughter, Rode-dog, Carmen love you

Whose loving is that? I think I know.
Its owner is quite happy though.
Full of joy like a vivid rainbow,
I watch her laugh. I cry hello.

She gives her loving a shake,
And laughs until her belly aches.
The only other sound's the break,
Of distant waves and birds awake.

The loving is strong, attractive and deep,
But she has promises to keep,
After cake and lots of sleep.
Sweet dreams come to her cheap.

She rises from her gentle bed,
With thoughts of kittens in her head,
She eats her jam with lots of bread.
May she rest in her bed.

Love your Lil Nigga, Your grandson DJ

Chevonne, Chevonne, Chevonne smh, I'm going back and forth with myself at this moment because I just can't believe that I'm sitting here writing a tribute to you for your obituary. My Black Nubian Queen! My example of strength in human form, my first love, my first friend (best friend), homegirl, Ride or die, my prayer warrior, my very own EARTH ANGEL, Protector and provider! Mama you were and still are a phenomenal woman, you showed us all that it's ok to give the Most High praise through any situation no matter what it may have been. You showed up and showed out every time for every situation You showed me how to give unconditional love. Mama who will I trust with everything, who will I be able to call on beside the Most High God. With you here with me I had no worries nor concerns. Mama I was so blessed to have you, me and Vince always knew you were something special that's why I never really wanted to share you with anybody. People would tease me about our relationship, but I didn't care cause a love like yours is only once in a lifetime. Mama, I need you to help me understand why the most high took you the way that he did, mama I need you to just call me one more time and remind me to be on time mama we are really hurting without you. Mama my kids my brother your family misses you so much. I know you're proud of me and as I write this I seen you smiling at me shaking your hand head at me beginning to pray for me while rubbing my back and holding me, I heard your voice in my head saying "only if my baby knew how much you truly love her Father, please give her the strength that I know she has father, please wrap your arms around my baby father and show her that even though I'm not her with her physically you will never allow me to leave her lonely, please father allow her to feel my presence in the midst of crying and grant me the ability to wipe her tears when she's crying in her sleep, oh father please open up here heart to be able to forgive and trust again, allow her to see and understand that you created her for me to love and through you I was able to show her love in return, please allow my children to be able to see their mother every time that they close their eyes and whenever they are getting ready to face a hard time Father, please allow me to step in and show up for them on your behalf, oh father I thank you in advance for Kelly's understanding that you're going to bless her with, I thank you for Lil Vince strength that you will restore within him cause my babies was gifts from you and only because of you was I able to be a gift to them, thank you father in the mighty name of our savior, I ask and pray- AMEN" and at this moment I knew that Im not alone I know that you'll FOREVER be with me I just wish that I knew how to let you go physically. Love always and forever...

Your Baby girl, your fast black Callie Chevonne

My auntie's love is a light to our very soul
My auntie was a blessing and because of that her spirit will never fade away, In my heart you will always stay
I know you are going to visit me in my dreams one day

Love, Nene

Imagine that! God blessed us with one of his craziest angels and took her back. I mean she looked like one of us, was flawed like us, and had to find her way, just like us. But, it was the perfect way to teach us what God's love really looked like. See, she was crazy enough to love the raggedy parts of you. Crazy enough to believe in you beyond your circumstances. Crazy enough to fight for you, Ride for you when no one else would. And as most of y'all know, Trina was also crazy enough to show up in those uncomfortable places. Places that you really didn't want her to be. Smiling and laughing because in her words, "Who gone stop me?" That kind of love hits different. It was crazy, unapologetic, and consistent Because she meant it! Like it or not, her job was done. That Angel right there was 1 of 1.

~Kesha

To Trina, My Angel,
You overcame so many barriers, from fighting when necessary, to growing into a beautiful mother to your children, Vince and Callie. You raised two beautiful and talented children, and have always been by their side. One memory that stands out is the time I let you drive my white convertible Cadillac to the YWCA on Vernon. You drove through an alley, ran into a pole and crashed my car! I couldn't get upset with you because you had just started driving. Later, you became the best driver ever. You turned your life to Christ at a relatively early age and maintained your loyalty to the Lord, until you were called home. I will always miss you and you will forever be in my heart, my "Trina Rena".

Love, Your other mother, Aunt JoJo (Josephine Childress LeFlore), Joel (Doughboy), Vernon, David and Trae

BEARELA ! BEARELA! No one knows what that means. But you mean you the world to me. I still pick up my cell to call you but there's no answer, I get a message saying your new number is 777 HEAVEN and you can call me anytime and if I don't answer leave me a message, I am with the MOST HIGH OVER SEEING ALL OF YOU.

LOVE YOUR BIG BROTHER GOFFER

Simply Trina

Strong enough to love out loud
Humble enough to ask for help
Meek enough to seek God's word daily
Courageous enough to mend broken lives
Lowly enough to reach the unreachable Determined to give more love time and energy of herself
Trina was a goal setter for a beautiful tomorrow for all
You will be missed my Queen
You are unforgettable till we see you again
Loving you always for being yourself
As for us a desolate winter has arrived because due your absence we long for Spring when you shoot forth again
Just as Spring brings roses with their beautiful aroma

Peace Love Auntie Karen

I still see you
When I feel a breeze
I still hear you
When I close my eyes and when I'm crying
I still feel your hugs
your gone but never forgotten.
You left a legacy behind far greater then money
You left behind your grace and compassion,
Your beauty captivated the room
not because of your looks although, You were a queen of beauty
but because of your soul
It shined so bright
I will always love you

Love your baby niece, Rawlene

Until that day, I'll think of you, the love we shared,
the memories too.
Until that day, I'll think of you, I'll try so hard in all I do.
Until that day, I'll find out why,
You had to leave me with no "goodbye."
Until that day, this is so, me and my siblings misses you, more than you know.
Until that day, I never knew I could be weak.
I locked myself in the house shut ppl out cause I couldn't speak.
Until that day, you'll be with them,
your God, your Savior, uncle Kevin and granny again.
Until that day, I see you there,
You're in my heart, you're everywhere.

Until that day.

Auntie Trina you are a light on this planet that cannot be dimmed even without your flesh being present you will live on. You've touched so many by being understanding, compassionate & loving; while showing support, and kindness to all. You will live through me the rest of my days.

I love you, always your niece Natasha,

I am still in complete disbelief that you are no longer here...You have made your mark here on earth as you have always set out to do because you have always been nothing more than unapologetically YOU!!!! I have unfortunately had to learn that god calls his good ones home unexpectedly although you not being here has caused utter shock and pain the only thing that has comforted me is knowing you left here doing something that you love and have always loved doing and that is providing help....thank you for always being there when I needed you...

I love you and always will....Niesha

Love you, Ronald and Alicia Cole

It wasn't easy coming up with the words to say farewell. I would hate to say goodbye because, it doesn't seem real, more of Auntie Trina is just on a vacation. The fact that I won't be able to hear your voice or see you doesn't sit well with me at all. The amount of love and support you've shown, your family, friends and community is outstanding, the matter of the situation still has me in disbelief, never would I have thought to say anything in a matter like this regarding my Auntie Trina even, then I still won't say goodbye but see you later. For having you in our lives, we've all been blessed. But now the time has arrived, for you to rest. I know my mom has welcomed you with open arms, I love you Auntie Trina may you rest peacefully.

Love Ashley

My aunt has ears that listen, arms that hug and hold, a love that's never-ending, and a heart that's made of gold. Some Aunts Are Very Special and Auntie Trina That Was Her. Some Aunts have that special touch. they put your cares at ease. They know just what to say and do to comfort and to please. They're kind and very thoughtful, they're quick to understand. Whenever someone needs them, they lend a helping hand. Our world is such a better place and happier by far, because there are some precious Aunts as special as you are.
