HUNTING WITH THE MASTER

I've finished all life has for me.
I've been invited to the great hunting ground.
Where every day is a wondrous day to hunt.
To fill your heart with every wish.
Don't worry or feel sad for me,
For I'm hunting with the Master of the Hunt.
We'll miss each other for some time,
But in time you will come and
We'll be with each other again..
That won't be long you will see.
For all those that think of me,
Know I am on a great hunt
And happy as can be.
Of those that wonder my missing
Tell them I'm gone hunting with the Master.

THE LIFE STORY OF
Brother Eddie James Williams, Sr.

Mr. Eddie James Williams, Sr. was the second of five children born in Savannah, Georgia to the late Ruby Williams. He was reared by his grandmother, Carrie James. In addition to his mother and grandmother, he was also preceded in death by all of his siblings, Billy Williams, Lloyd Williams, Carrie Brown and Janette Walker.

He was educated in the public schools of Chatham County and attended Woodville High School.

Mr. Williams was employed for over 27 years at Georgia Pacific and then spent 19 years with ILA Local 1414 before retiring in 1999.

Mr. Williams was an avid deer hunter and was for many years a member of Sheldon Hunting Lodge.

Mr. Williams was an active member of Clifton Baptist Church and sang in the male chorus.

He was united in holy matrimony to the love of his life, Nancy Margaret Williams on August 25, 1961 and to their union 3 children were born, with two preceding him in death, twins Edward who died in infancy and Eddie, Jr. in 2017 at age 48.

Because of God's divine wisdom, on Monday, February 27th an angel of the Lord came to give him sweet eternal rest for his labors on earth.

Loving memories will be cherished by his family; his beloved wife of 61 years, Nancy Williams (who he lovingly referred to as "Shorty"), daughter, Ettajane (Alexis, Jr.) Robbins, special daughters, Shelia (Carrol) White and Shirley Hendrix; brother-in-law, William "Buzzy" Williams of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; granddaughters, Shari Brown, Cierra Hendrix and Shannon Hendrix; grandsons, Alexis (Tiffany) Robbins, Jr, Terrrell Robbins and Tommy Gates; 8 great grandchildren, and a host of other family and dear friends.
