

John D. Otto, of Brooklyn Center, passed away on January 1, 2023. He was 34 years old.

John was preceded in death by his father, Michael J. Otto, and his grandparents.

He is survived by his children: John II, Lillian, and George; mother, Lita Otto; brothers, Jeffrey (Jaci) and Winford; other loving family and many friends.

John will be missed for his big smiles, warm laughter, and generous heart. He fought hard and selflessly to remain with his kids. He was a panda enthusiast and gave the best bear hugs.

Until We Meet Again

Each morning when we awake
we know that you are gone.
And no one knows the heartache
As we try to carry on.

Our hearts still ache with sadness
and many tears still flow.
What it meant to lose you,
No one will ever know.

Our thoughts are always with you,
your place no one can fill.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still.

There will always be a heartache,
and often a silent tear,
But always a precious memory
Of the days when you were here.

If tears could make a staircase,
And heartaches make a lane,
We'd walk the path to heaven
And bring you home again.

We hold you close within our hearts,
And there you will remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives
Until we meet again.

Our family chain is broken now,
And nothing will be the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Forever In Our Hearts
