JAZMINE'S Life Story

Jazmine Symone Ward entered the world on April 18, 1990. She was born in Temple University Hospital in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Fawn Coates and Maurice Ward. Jazmine is the only child of Fawn Coates and the first Grandchild of Sandra Coates. Jazmine transitioned from this world on July 10, 2023.

Jazmine attended schools in both Philadelphia Public and Parochial School systems graduating from Northeast High School in 2008. She had aspirations of obtaining a nursing degree and/or any degree in the medical field. Jazmine started to pursue that dream when she was a freshman in high school. She was accepted into the Temple University OHC Program, which she truly loved and enjoyed. She happily and successfully received her Certificate of Completion after the two-year program. Jazmine's first place of employment at University Services as a file clerk was a prerequisite to her dream. She then went on to obtain the necessary education and training while employed at Paul's Run Nursing Home Facility as a Certified Nursing Assistant. Jazmine continued the path of her endeavor in the medical field as a college student at The Community College of Philadelphia in the Nursing Program. Later she enrolled at Lincoln Tech. Jazmine maintained constant employment which she also enjoyed in different fields such as ABM Janitorial Services, Allied Security and her favorite, The Sugar House Casino in the security department. No matter what, Jazmine ALWAYS touched someone's heart and life. She was true to everyone that she loved, especially FAMILY. She was true to the FAMILY FIRST CODE.

"Jazz," as she is affectionately called, enjoyed listening to Hip Hop and R&B music, dancing, watching movies, singing, and discussing current events. She also took the great pleasure of gathering with family and friends - making sure that everyone was okay, even when she wasn't doing so great herself. Everything about Jazz was LOVE. She truly had the gift of Filling a Room and Commanding ALL of the ATTENTION!!!

Above all things, Jazz had the greatest delight serving as the proud mother of J'sy Christian Ward, the love of her life. J'sy is her pride and joy and the greatest gift God bestowed upon her. Jazz knows that her little genius (who helps all the adults in the family spell words correctly) will be covered by God's everlasting grace.

Jazmine leaves to forever cherish her memories her only child, J'sy Christian Ward, Mother Fawn Coates, Father Maurice Ward, Grandmother Sandra Coates, Uncles Ronald Coates, Dode Coates, Sean Ward, and Omar Ward, Sisters Janelle and Tiona, Aunts, Cousins, Loving God Parents and a host of other Relatives and Friends.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

God's GARDEN

God looked around his garden

And found an empty place,

He then looked down upon the earth

And saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you

And lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful

He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering

He knew you were in pain.

He knew that you would never

Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough

And the hills were hard to climb.

So he closed your weary eyelids

And whispered, 'Peace be thine'.

It broke our hearts to lose you

But you didn't go alone,

For part of us went with you

The day God called you home.
