

Our Little Messenger

October, 2019

Irrigon Seventh-day Adventist Church

#10-2019

When you take the quiet time with God, let Him remind you why you should be thankful.

We are reminded of our greatest blessing of all in Acts 13:32-34, "32 We tell you the good news: What God promised our ancestors 33 he has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising up Jesus. As it is written in the second Psalm: 'You are my son; today I have become your father.' 34 God raised him from the dead so that he will never be subject to decay. As God has said, "I will give you the holy and sure blessings promised to David."

All the blessings God has promised His children belong to us in Jesus. One day, the seasons will no longer change as they do today; all things will be made new. One day, there shall be no more death, sorrow, crying or pain. One day we will get to see our Savior face to face and never have to be a part from Him again. Thank God for all His blessings while today is still called today.

Pastor Brian & Family

As children have been back in school, the leaves are changing colors and temperatures are becoming moderate it reminds me that soon the cool weather will turn cold and not too long after that we may be shoveling snow. While our thoughts often go to the future, I try to pull myself back into today and remember what a beautiful day I get to experience today. While it is great to dream and look forward to what the future holds it is important praise God for the blessings that He has given to us this day.

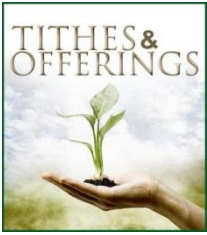

Sometimes people maybe going through such difficult trials that all their focus is only on how to make tomorrow a better day, even in those difficult times it is important to praise God. Every breath we take is a gift from God and if we focus only on the trials it can be easy to miss the blessings.
