The Questions to Ask Yourself

Many times I have had someone look back at me and say, “Are you coming?” I tend to stay back and watch different events in life unfold. But this phrase often has come in my direction as cold waves crashed around me while I slowly waded into the cold ocean. I wished to or retreat backwards to shore—content to watch from a distance out of an inner fear of the ocean itself.

There are times in life where one has to make a choice—to go forward, to hesitate, to stay back. God’s call can be a small whisper like the quiet wind on the shore or loud like a crashing wave. He wants us to “come with him” but He has given us the choice to follow Him. Our choice to move forward might be scary and mean vulnerability but it also means trusting in God to provide. Staying back might seem safe but would also mean missing an opportunity to know Him more. His call is first and foremost to strengthen our relationship with Him. Even Moses had hesitations in following God’s call (Exodus 4:10-12):

But Moses said to the Lord, “Oh, my Lord, I am not eloquent, either in the past or since you have spoken to your servant, but I am slow of speech and of tongue.”

God reassures Moses by telling him that He will always be there—every time Moses speaks. He reminds us that He is powerful and not only will be with us but will teach us along the way so that we can also learn and grow. When we are faced with these choices, or a moment in time where we feel hesitant, Jesus will walk with us and be there. Whether it is a life-changing career move, facing a conflict in a relationship, or an area of your life where you feel Jesus guiding you, nothing is too hard for Him. He wants to use these moments of vulnerability, of faith, to build on our relationship with Him.

With all of this in mind, ask yourself: Where in your life are you hesitating? Is it a conversation that you are holding back from having? A decision that must be made? A risk you are worried about taking? God will support us throughout those hesitations. He will take care of us, we will grow, but we have to take that step forward. So, are you coming?

Announcements

Governor Brad Little has issued statewide Stage 2 public health order as of Friday, November 13: at-risk Idahoans should self-isolate. With the exception of worship service, gatherings of more than 10 people are prohibited. For our Clark Fork church, this means no potlucks, no church-sponsored Thanksgiving meal, and one-at-a-time service at the Food Bank.

Prayer Meeting: Wednesdays from 3 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. The group is studying Ephesians.

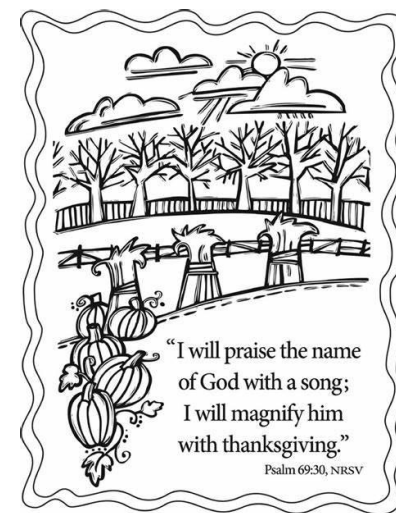

Prayer Requests: Call Janet Remitz at 406-847-5526.

Food Bank DESPERATELY Needs Help: Not enough items are available to fill the Thanksgiving boxes for those in need. They especially are wanting donations of stuffing, margarine, canned milk, olives, cream of mushroom soup, gravy (packets or jars), 5-lb bags of sugar, and 2-lb bags of brown sugar. Monetary donations also are welcome. Make out donations to Clark Fork Food Bank. Drop off on Wednesday 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Food Bank, or Hays Chevron or the Library any time.

Sabbath, December 12, Christmas Open House: A special event for our church and community. Details forthcoming.
