Do Not Stand by My Grave
Do not stand at my grave and weep,
For I'm not there asleep.
I am the spirited bird in the sky,
Now happy, free, and always alive.
Sometimes I will be at your window sill,
To let you know I love you still;
On the wind that blows across your face,
Leaving many of my kisses as a trace.
I promise to never wander too far away,
To be able to hear what you say.
Don't you stand by my grave,
All alone you cry my name.
Don't just stand by my grave,
Now is the time to be brave.
Do not stand by my grave and cry,
I will always be somewhere nearby.
Close your eyes and feel us holding hands,
Remember all my love the best that you can.
The sun will rise each day to come,
I am happy to be with the Holy One.
Before too long the pain will soon be gone,
Your spirit has always been that strong.
The day will come for us to meet again,
To make that everlasting
That everlasting love will stand.
