III. SUBMISSION INFORMATION

TITLE OF GAME :

For the Fair Game Writing Challenge, this refers to the title of your Poem.

The Fair Game Writing Challenge is a competitive writing award category and scholarship, supported by the New York Videogame Critics Circle. To participate, students submit two writing samples: an original Poem and a critical Video Game Review. There is no digital game-making involved in this award category. Students will work on their writing samples as an individual (no teams). Students are limited to one Fair Game entry each, containing both of the following writing samples:

- Poem (minimum 300 words)
- Video Game Review (600-750 words)

Fair Game submissions will be reviewed by panels of expert journalists and game executives. One student winner will be selected from each of the 4 Challenge regions. Winners will receive a $500 cash prize, special mentorship opportunities from expert video game journalists and critics, and a potential publication opportunity.

POEM:

Write a social justice-oriented poem about a video game and how it affected your emotions. Did they make you feel happy, angry, or sad? Did it help you through a difficult time? The poem can be in any style of your choice (free verse, rhyming, etc.). (Minimum 300 words)

Word count: 0 (300 min)

TITLE OF VIDEO GAME REVIEW

VIDEO GAME REVIEW:

Write a review of your favorite video game and share what it means to you. This writing sample should be formatted according to the following two resources: Game Review Checklist and How To Outline A Game Review. (600-750 words)

Word count: 0 / 750 (600 min)

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, occupying the upper half of the page. It is intended for the user to provide details or evidence related to their submission.
