Happy New Year Parents!

We are so happy to kick off our second half of the school year and to start a new decade together. There aren't any pressing matters at the time however, please just refresh yourself on our ongoing endeavors found below.

1. If you are using Amazon for any purchases. Please use amazon.com and choose Dupont Park Adventist School as your choice of charity. This way the school will receive help while you go about your day to day.
2. The students are also collecting recyclable items, glass and plastic bottled specifically, that have the New York $0.05 label on them. Please bring your collected items to the front office.
3. "To be early is to be on time, to be on time is to be late and to be late is unacceptable." Here at the Dupont Park School, we desire to teach our students the importance of promptness. We understand that life happens and situations arise, however, we do not want to make tardiness a habit. Classes start at 8:00am and the building becomes accessible to students, who are not in before care, at 7:50.
4. Lastly, we have many clothing items left at the school, so for your convenience, a Lost and Found container will be placed in the Multipurpose Room on Alabama Avenue. If your child is missing an item of clothing, please check the container. After two weeks, all unclaimed items will be given to a local charity.

Once again thank you for your continuous support as we aim towards a successful school year. Together, we are committed to ensure the best possible education for your children.

Best Regards,

The Dupont Park Adventist School Administration

Quote of The Week

"I have never encountered any children in any group who are not geniuses. There is no mystery on how to teach them. The first thing you do is treat them like human beings and the second thing you do is love them."

Asa Hilliard

Thank you, parents, for your support and commitment to DPAS!

Allegheny East Conference Student Creed

Higher than the highest human thought can reach is God's ideal for his children.

Godliness-godlikeness is the goal to be reached. Before me there is opened a path of continual progress. I have an object to achieve, a standard to attain, that includes everything good, and pure, and noble. (Education, p. 18)

I am created in the image of God and I am endowed with power akin to that of the Creator individuality, power to think and to do. I will develop my power to think and not be a mere reflector of other men's thoughts. (Education, p. 17)

I must face the practical realities of life, its opportunities, its responsibilities, its defeats, and its successes. How I meet these experiences, whether I become master or victim of circumstance depends largely upon my preparation to cope - my education. (Education, Forward)

I will use my time wisely!

I will learn something new today! I will be successful today!

I will have no other gods before Thee

I will not make unto Thee any graven images nor bow down myself to serve them I will not take the name of the Lord (my God) in vain

I will remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy I will honor my father and my mother

I will not kill

I will not commit adultery I will not steal

I will not bear false witness against my neighbor I will not covet anything that is my neighbor's

The greatest want of the world is the want of men; men who do not fear to call sin by its right name, men whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle of the pole, men who will stand for the right though the heavens fall. But such a character is not the result of accident: it is not due to special favors or endowments of Providence. A noble character is the result of self-discipline, of the subjection of the lower to the higher nature, the surrender of self for the service of love to God and man. (Education, p. 57)

Church school serves as a barrier against widespread corruption, provides for mental and spiritual welfare, and promotes prosperity of the nation by furnishing it with men qualified to act in the fear and admonition of God as leaders. (Education p. 278)

My happiness for this life and for the future immortal life lies with me. I will not be content with dull thoughts, an indolent mind, or a loose memory. I will seek higher attainments.

(Education, p. 278)

Christ will be the center of my life and I will be a servant of God and a friend to man. This is my time, my place, and my opportunity. I accept the challenge to be all I can be.

Background Checks for Parent Volunteers

All volunteers must complete a background check through the conference appointed agency, Sterling Volunteers, which was formerly known as Verified Volunteers. If you completed the background check with Verified Volunteers within the past year, you are still covered. Your account will remain unchanged from your original login. For those who have not completed the background check, please visit the website at sterlingvolunteers.com.
